SHORT SPORT

A five-foot, 100-pound Edmonton girl, nicknamed "Mighty Mouse" is one of the leading contenders for a berth on the Canadian Olympic team. Nineteen year old Edith Skitch already holds more than a dozen titles in track and field events, including one Dominion, one British Columbia and 11 provincial and inter-scholastic. Part of her athletic prowess is inherited from her father and mother. Her father is an experienced wrestler and a former member of the Eskimo rugby team. "Mom" grew up in England and starred in high jumping and running.

Edith started her athletic career at 13 when her father promised her a pair of "spiked shoes" if she beat a neighbor in a race. She won and since then has been busy following up her first victory. She also takes an active interest in basketball and has the job of organizing and co-ordinating all sports at University High School, where she is a Grade 12 student. Making her own clothes is a matter of necessity because she can't get any small enough to fit her and she doesn't relish the idea of wearing clothes patterned for 12-year olds.

At the moment, Edith is looking forward to the Dominion senior and junior girls track and field championship meet to be held here in July, and the elimination trials for Canadian team personnel in September. "If we are lucky and get on the track and field team, we'll be training all next fall and winter. If not, guess I'll have to go to Varsity and take physical training."

BASEBALL FEUD TO BE SETTLED THURSDAY NIGHT

The weatherman may have dampened the grounds, but he did nothing to cool off the feud between veterans and rookies who planned to settle the argument of youth versus experience on the Roosevelt Park baseball diamond last Sunday.

The verbal battle has been raging with increased intensity all week, and has culminated in the prospect of a game to end all such games for the season tomorrow evening. That, too, is subject to the weather.

At the same time, arrangements are being made by the baseball association executive for the opening game of the league next Sunday afternoon, with Watts and Nickerson meeting Savoy.

League officials feel that since there is considerable interest in the veterans versus rookies game, there should be a record crowd in the bleachers Thursday night, and are planning to take up a collection for the newly-created Injured Players Fund.
