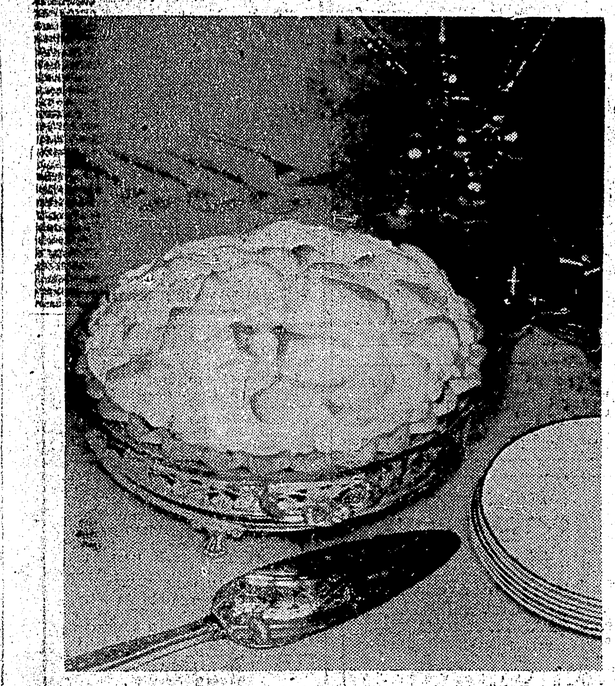
KITCHEN FARE

Spectacular "Alaska Mince Pie" perfect holiday dinner dessert

Today's recipe features "mincmeat" in a handsome new Christmas dress. A heavenly struction of pastry, ice cream and mincemeat with a fairy wand's touch of lemon.



MINCEMEAT IN A HANDSOME NEW CHRISTMAS DRESS

It's covered with meringue and baked quickly to a lovely golden brown. Though easy to make, this is spectacular enough to star at any holiday dinner.

ALASKA MINCE PIE
(Makes One 9-inch Pie)

One 9--inch baked and cooled pie shell
1 cup well-drained mincemeat (homemade or canned)
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
1 quart softened vanilla ice cream
3 egg whites
6 tablespoons sugar

Prepare, bake and cool pie shell. Combine well - drained mincemeat and lemon rind. Spoon ice cream into pie shell; carefully spoon mincemeat over ice cream and mix in slightly with spoon. Place in freezer until serving time. Preheat oven to 450°F. (hot). Beat egg whites until stiff, but not dry; gradually beat in sugar and continue to beat until meringue will hold stiff peaks. Spread over ice cream, making sure meringue touches pastry around edge. Bake in preheated oven 4 to 6 minutes. Serve immediately.

Cambrai chapter to give Christmas gifts to needy

A "good will" exchange of gifts Christmas party followed the meeting of the Cambrai chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire Wednesday night at the group's last session of 1960.

Held at the home of Mrs. J. J. Comadina, two guests, Mrs. Mary Laurie and Mrs. W. G. Bishop were welcomed.

Chaired by Regent Mrs. T. A. McMeekin, during the business session, money was voted for National IODE funds, which the chapter supports.

Monies voted for local funds were: $25 to be given the local IODE scholarship fund; Christmas cards and oranges, along with a $15 gift to be given the pupils of the chapter's adopted Port Essington School and $50 to buy food for local welfare families as well as each member providing a needy child with a Christmas gift.

In other business Mrs. G. P. Lyons, convener of Immigration and Citizenship spoke on the Citizenship council's European Air Trip reminding members that the deadline date is December 12 for persons wishing to take advantage of the exciting journey.

Co-hosting the delightful yuletide party with members exchanging gifts were Mrs. R. A. Torley, Mrs. T. A. McMeekin, Mrs. W. J. McLean and Miss Evelyn Rivett.

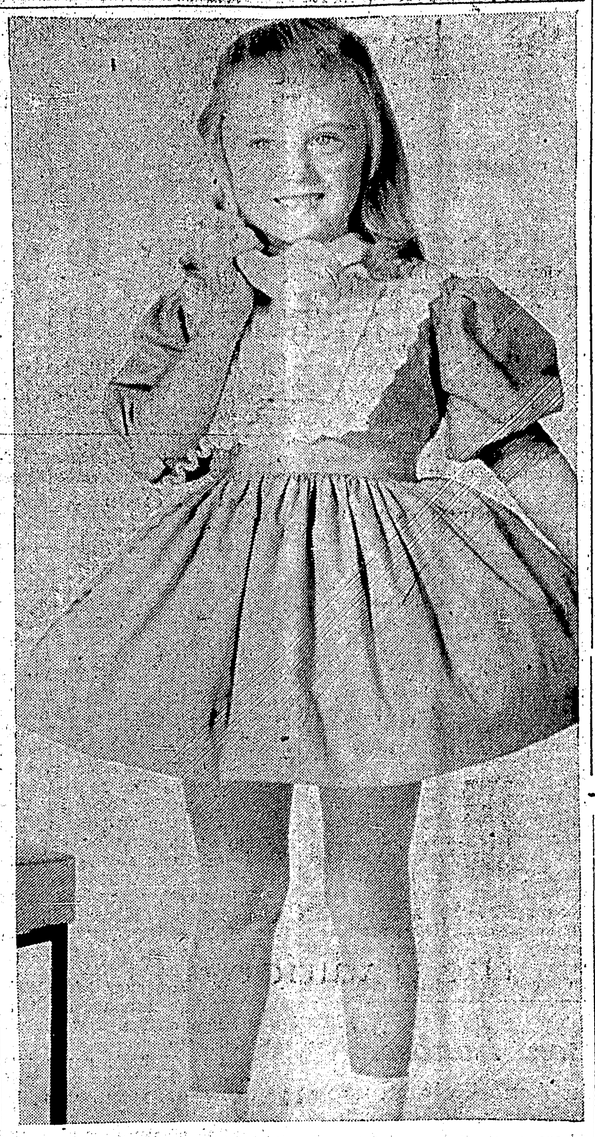
MARRIED 76 YEARS

MINISTER, England (CP)—Britain's longest - married couple, Jesse and Sarah Neeves, celebrated their 76th wedding anniversary in this Kent village November 29.



"PORTRAIT LOOK" party frocks will be popular this holiday season with the young miss who shows a growing interest in her wardrobe. "Young Lass" party dresses like this one in a lustrous broadcloth of 65 per cent "terylene" and 35 per cent combed cotton come in jewel tones of sapphire blue, amethyst and rose sapphire. Designed by Kiddie Craft, these dresses are amazingly wrinkle-resistant. They can be machine or hand washed and worn with little or no ironing. The "portrait" dresses are available in sizes 3 to 14.

Maureen Forrester wins critics' acclaim

LONDON (CP) — When Canadian contralto Maureen Forrester sang in Vienna for the first time, she felt she would gladly settle for fair-to-middling reviews.

She didn't dare hope for a headline such as "an evening which shows perfection" — but those were the words used by the Vienna Express in reviewing her program of 34 songs in four languages.

INCREASED DEMAND

By 1980 European demand for newsprint will increase by more than 1,500,000 tons.

WA HOLDS THIRD BIRTHDAY FETE

Local 708 children's Yule party set for Sunday at Civic Centre
