$750 safety awards to CCC departments

Payments totaling $750 have been made to employees of Columbia Cellulose Company for their Safety Record for the first quarter of 1959.

Awards are made on a departmental basis and to receive full payment a department must have worked for three months without an injury severe enough to cause lost time. If a lost time injury occurred during this three month period that particular department loses the award payment for the month in which the injury occurred.

Fourteen department have qualified for full payment for January, February and March with a no-lost-time accident record while three Departments, woodroom, bleach plant and yard had one lost time injury each, losing one months award payment.

Employees in each department decide how their safety award money is spent and in the past this money has been used for such things as Christmas turkeys for all people in the department, gifts to workers who are off work due to illness, purchase of theatre tickets for all employees or a draw is held and the winners receive cash prizes.

The Columbia Cellulose Company safety record for the first quarter of 1959 shows a marked improvement over the same period last year.

In the first quarter of 1958 six lost time injuries were recorded while only three were experienced for the same period this year.

At the end of March, Columbia Cellulose Company had gone 49 days without a lost time injury.

Teenagers 'get' message when Ricky Nelson sings

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Eric Hilliard Nelson looks and acts like any teen-ager. He has long, wavy hair, a straight nose and pouting lip.

He dresses in good, casual style. He's interested in athletics and girls, too. At 18, he is not too communicative with adults.

But his fellow teen-agers get his message.

When Rickey Nelson gets behind a guitar, he is no longer the shy young man. He strums the chords, screws up his face and moans "My bucket's got a hole in it" or "Don't leave me this way."

It is with just such songs that Rickey has ascended to the No. 1 spot in the hearts of teen-agers. He has just collected his sixth gold record (million seller) with Lonesome Town. His three albums have sold in fantastic numbers.

In 1958, he earned $400,000 without half trying. The majority of this came from record sales. Because he appears on the ABC television show with his parents, Ozzie and Harriet Nelson, and brother David, his outside activities are limited. He made only one film, Rio Bravo, and a few singing appearances—he attracted 47,000 in one day at the Atlantic City steel pier.

What does Ricky think of all this?

"I don't know," he says in typical style. "I never see any of the money. It all goes in the bank. If I ever need any money, I just ask my parents for some. I have no idea how much I'm making."

Ricky has reversed the usual success saga. His is a riches-to-riches story with no rags involved.

The lad didn't start earning big money until he was eight years old. That was when he and his brother bumped a couple of radio actors off The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet show.

A year ago, Ricky decided he wanted to sing as well as act. He had trouble convincing people he could.

Ricky tells the story with only a trace of glee: "I made a record of I'm Walking and we took it around to several of the record companies. Most of them weren't interested. One place told me it would take them a year or two to build me into a record draw."

Shareholders to get shares at $32 each

Special to The Daily News

MONTREAL—Rights to 675,000 additional shares of Bank of Montreal capital stock are to be offered to shareholders at $32 per share, on the basis of one new share for each eight held, G. Arnold Hart, president, announced today.

The new issue will increase the bank's paid-up capital to the highest figure in Canadian banking history, he said.

The issue is being undertaken in view of the substantial increase in total assets of the bank since the last issue two years ago, and because of the formation of the new Bank of London and Montreal Limited, serving Latin America and the Caribbean, he added.

Mr. Hart said the bank last month transferred $3,000,000 from tax-paid inner reserves to its rest account, which now stands at $123,000,000, in relation to paid-up capital of $54,000,000. On completion of the new issue, the B of M capital account will be increased by $6,750,000, on the basis of $10 par-value shares, bringing paid-up capital to $60,750,000. At the same time, the rest account will be increased $14,850,000 to a total of $137,850,000.

Head, chest injuries kill Torbrit miner

Albert Bouillion, 39, a trainman employed by Torbrit Silver Mines at Alice Arm, died from severe crushing injuries to his head and chest a six-man jury decided yesterday.

Mr. Bouillion was riding on the front car of a five-car train that transports ore to and from the mine when a slide consisting of snow, rocks and timbers fell into the overhead enclosure burying the trainman and a portion of the train, the jury was told.

Another man who was operating the train from the rear escaped injury. It took mine employees about 20 minutes to recover the body.

The tracks with the overhead shelter extend from the mine mill to the mine, a distance of about one mile.

The jury made up of Torbrit Silver Mines employees convened under Deputy Coroner Dr. R. B. Smith of Prince Rupert.

The mishap occurred Tuesday afternoon.
