Lumley wins goalie duel for Bruins

Ranger netminder may be on way out

By The Canadian Press

Two National Hockey League goaltenders in quest of job-security fought a bitter duel Tuesday night.

Harry Lumley won as Boston Bruins defeated the Rangers 4-3 in New York in the only game scheduled.

Loser Marcel Paille could hardly have lost at a worse time. New York reports say the last-place Rangers may make another goaltending switch as they enter the schedule's second half.

Bruins now are two points ahead of Chicago Black Hawks and five ahead of the Rangers.

To reach the first division, any of these three teams would have to undertake a route-march on the double. Third-place Toronto Maple Leafs are nine points in front of Boston.

EARLY LEAD

Paille held the Bruins at bay for almost 35 mintes after they took a 2-0 first-period lead. His teammates evened the score but the Bruins broke through in the last five minutes of play.

Vic Stasiuk put the Bruins ahead to stay on a play with Bronco Horvath and the eventual winner was scored by defensive stalwart Fern Flaman on a screened shot.

Lumley was superb but earned himself a 10-minute misconduct penalty and automatic $25 fine at the end of the game for arguing with referee Dalton McArthur.

He started the season with Boston but coach Milt Schmidt has also been using Don Simmons. Lumley has played 24 games and Simmons 11. Both goaltenders averages have ranged between 3.50 and 4.00

Paille was called up a month ago from Rangers' Springfield, Mass., American League farm team to replace Lorne Worsley. The Rangers have accounted for six of their nine wins since, but scored four or more goals in each of those games.

ALMOST EVEN

In 16 games Paille has given up 60 goals for a 3.75 average. Worsley departed with 3.79.

The Rangers are reported interested in two Western League goalers: former Toronto and Chicago star Al Rollins, now with Winnipeg, and Hank Bassen of Vancouver.

Goals by Charlie Burns and Bob Armstrong made Boston's first-period lead. Camille Henry scored in the second and Andy Hebenton in the third before Stasiuk and Flaman clicked.

The Rangers went down fighting on Andy Bathgate's last-minute goal.

The Bruins were a man short because of too many men on the ice when Hebeton scored.

The league-leading Montreal Canadiens play at Toronto in tonight's only game. Canadien's injured Maurice Richard and rookie Billy Hicke, sidelined by a boil infection, will be missing.

The Leafs, still without Bert Olmstead, have lost Gerry James for at least a week. Manager-coach Punch Imlach said Tuesday James, football star with the Grey Cup champion Winnipeg Blue Bombers, was suffering from an attack of phlebitis.

Sports Roundup

CHICAGO (AP)—Nigerian Dick Tiger, British Empire middleweight champion, is a 2-1 favorite to defeat veteran Holly Mims in a televised 10-rounder in Chicago Stadium tonight.

Tiger, a durable scrapper with a good left, has a record of 35 victories, including 10 knockouts, 9 losses and 2 draws. He is ranked sixth on the National Boxing Association, middleweight ladder and ninth by Ring Magazine.

Non-title fight

SYDNEY, N.S. (CP) — Canadian bantamweight champion Johnny Devison of Glace Bay will go against Bobby Shaunessy of Brockton, Mass., in a 10-round non-title fight here New Year's Day.

It will be Devison's first major bout since he won the Canadian title with a victory over Marcel Gendron of Quebec City.

Still in hospital

MONTREAL (CP)—Billy Hicke, rookie right-winger with Montreal Canadiens, remained in hospital Tuesday suffering from a boil infection in his leg and will not rejoin his mates for a National Hockey League game in Toronto Wednesday.

Horse of decade

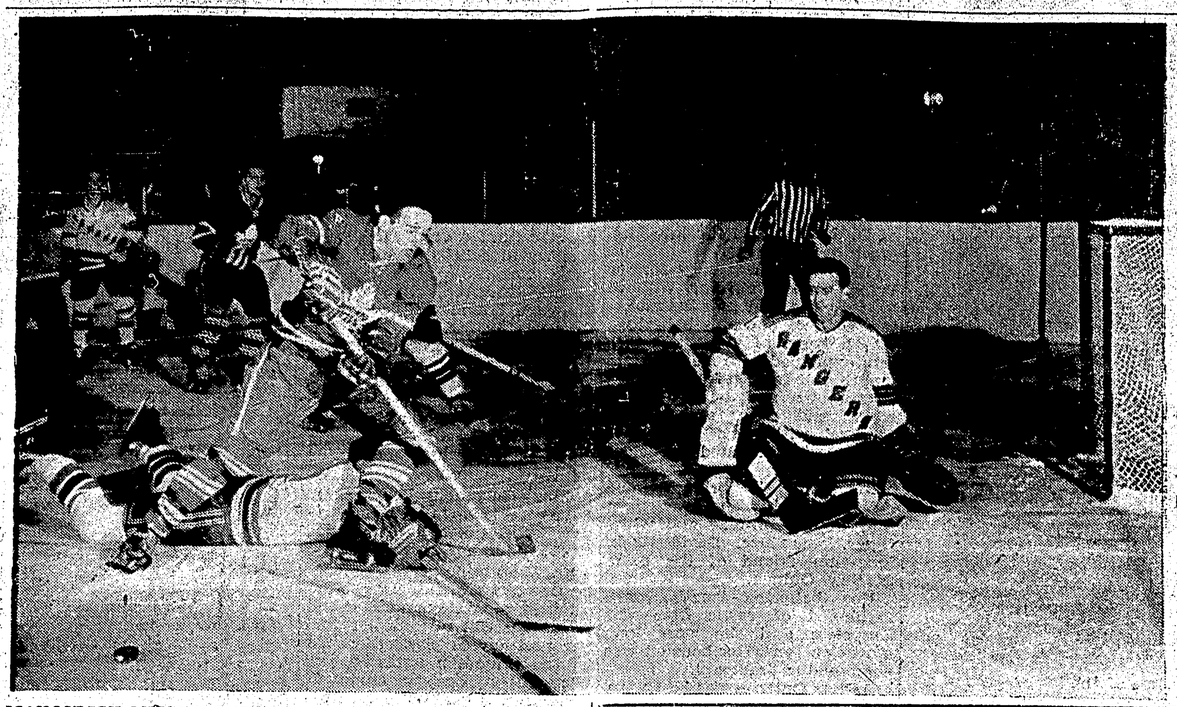
MIAMI (AP) — Tom Fool, the Greentree Stable colt who won 21 of his 30 starts in a three-season racing career, was voted the horse of the decade (1950-1959) by members of the National Turf Writers' Association, Joe Hirsch, president, said Tuesday.

Tom Fool won five of seven starts as a two-year old in 1951, six of 13 in 1952 and then closed his career by taking all 10 as a four-year old. His total earnings were $570,165. He now is standing at stud in Kentucky.

Mulloy wins

NEW ORLEANS (AP)— Gardnar Mulloy of the United States cut down Welshman, Mike Davies 6-4, 6-3, 1-6, 7-5 in the finals of the Sugar Bowl invitational tennis tournament Tuesday.

It was the 47year-old Mulloy's first singles finals since he won the title in 1952. He was unseeded this year. Davies, Britain's No. 3 player, was seeded third.



MAHOVLICH MISSES ONE—Ranger goalie Marcel Paille stops this shot by Leaf forward Frank Mahovlich, one of the 26 saves he recorded in Saturday's NHL game in Toronto, but let in another by Mahovlich, one by Ron Stewart and two by Gerry Ehman to give Toronto an easy 4-0 win over New York. TAKE OVER FOURTH PLACE

Rampaging Flyers stage brawl for boss of NHL

By The Canadian Press

The Western Hockey League Edmonton Flyers are on the march, and sitting right in their path are Victoria Cougars.

The pepped-up Flyers, cashing in on a crop of goal-hungry forwards who appear nowhere in the league's scoring race, registered their third straight win Tuesday as they defeated visiting Spokane Comets 6-2 in a game marked by one of the wildest brawls of the season.

The win gave Flyers, who recently returned from a four-game coast tour with two wins, one loss and a tie, 35 points in the standings and a firm hold on fourth place.

They now are only two points back of third-place Cougars and have a game in hand. In addition, Cougars may have hit a temporary slump, managing only one win in their three-game holiday weekend schedule.

The league-leading Vancouver Canucks moved further ahead of the opposition in Tuesday's other game, defeating second-place Seattle Totems 3-1.

Canucks now have 52 points, 11 more than Totems. Calgary is in fifth spot, four points behind Edmonton. Winnipeg Warriors are sixth and Spokane remains in the cellar.

The brawl began when Edmonton forward Chuck Holmes tangled with Spokane defenceman Dick Creighton. Flyers winger Ed Diachuk sailed into rugged Comet defenceman Bill Burega and the fight was on.

DIVES AT REF

After order was restored, referee Willy Papp was listing the penalties when Creighton dove from the penalty box and swung at him. Creighton got a game misconduct.

Forbes Kennedy, Gene Achtymichuk, Holmes, Stu McNeill, Len Haley and Don Poile scored for Edmonton. Alex Kuzma and Dol Toppoll tallied for Spokane.

National Hockey League President Clarence Campbell was a spectator at the contest.

Centres Ron Hutchinson and Ray Cyr and defenceman Ralph Keller got Vancouver's goals. Canucks were handled by assistant coach Colin Kilburn as coach Art Chapman was confined to bed with a stomach ailment.

Tommy McVie scored the only Seattle goal with a hard shot after only 17 seconds of play.

Soccer tours set for Scots, Soviet teams

WINNIPEG (CP)—Hearts, leaders of the Scottish first division, and an all-star team from Soviet Russia will tour Canada at separate times next summer, George Anderson of Winnipeg, secretary of the Canadian Soccer-Football Association, announced Tuesday.

A Canadian all-star soccer team also will tour Russia next September.

Anderson said he had received telegrams, confirming the tours.

DATES, SITES NOT SET

Anderson said the Russian team will play several Canadian teams in various cities, but no dates or sites have been set. The only other Russian team to tour Canada was the Moscow Lokomotiv in 1956.

He said the Canadian all-stars likely will play some British teams while en route to Russia, and then play the Canadian Army soccer team in West Germany en route home.

Hearts, which won the Scottish cup last month, probably will play exhibition matches against the touring Manchester United squad in New York, Toronto, Montreal, Vancouver and possibly Los Angeles. Also during the May-June tour, Hearts will meet several Canadian teams.

Hearts last toured Canada and the U.S. in 1958, winning eight matches and losing once to Manchester City.

Bathgate closes in TORONTO (CP)—Andy Bathgate got a goal and Bronco Horvath an assist as Boston Bruins edged New York Rangers 4-3 in the only National Hockey League game Tuesday night. Bathgate is now only two points behind Chicago's league-leading Bobby Hull, who has 44. Horvath now is third.

Johansson named 'fighter of the year'

NEW YORK (AP)—Ingemar Johansson, world heavyweight champion, has been named "fighter of the year" for the second straight time by Ring Magazine in its annual year-end issue.

Johansson's selection was based on his dramatic third-round knockout of Floyd Patterson June 26 at Yankee Stadium. Gene Fullmer, the National Boxing Association's middleweight champ, was runnerup.

Although the boxing magazine still rate Sugar Ray Robinson as the world champ despite NBA's recognition of Fullmer, it listed Sugar Ray No. 3 among the middleweights.

Editor Nat Fleischer said the fact that a boxer is recognized as champion does not necessarily gain for him the No. 1 rating. Gene Fullmer was listed as No. 1 and Spider Webb, beaten by Fullmer earlier this month, was No. 2.

Three boxers were listed in a class by themselves for the first time in five years. They were Davey Moore, the feather champ; Joe Becerra, the bantam king; and Pascual Perez, the veteran flyweight champion. They were so rated because their superiority was regarded as unquestioned.

DURELLE STILL RANKED

Although he has retired, Yvon Durelle of Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., is listed as the fourth contender in the light heavyweight division.

The ratings:

Heavyweight—Champion, Ingemar Johansson, Sweden. 1. Johansson. 2. Floyd Patterson; 3. Zora Folley; 4. Sonny Liston, 5. Eddie Machen, Portland, Ore.

Light-Heavyweight— Champion, Archie Moore. 1. Moore; 2. Harold Johnson; 3. Erich Schoeppner, Germany; 4. Yvon Durelle, (retired); 5. Mike Holt, South Africa.

Middleweight—Champion, Ray Robinson, New York. 1. Gene Fullmer; 2. Spider Webb; 3. Robinson; 4. Carmen Basilio; 5. Gustav Scholz, Germany.

Welterweight—Champion, Don Jordan, 1. Jordan; 2. Luis Rodriguez, Cuba; 3. Charley Scott; 4. Garnet (Sugar) Hart; 5. Rudell Stitch.

Lightweight — Champion, Joe Brown. 1. Brown; 2. Carlos Ortiz; 3. Paolo Rosi; 4. Dave Charnley, England; 5. Raymundo Torres, Mexico.

Featherweight — Champion, Davey Moore. 1. Moore; 2. Hogan (Kid) Bassey, Nigeria; 3. Ricardo Gonzales, Argentina.

Bantamweight — Champion, Joe Becerra, Mexico; 1. Becerra; 2. Alphonse Halimi, France; 3. Leo Espinosa, Philippines.

Flyweight—Champion, Pascual Perez, Argentina; 1. Perez; 2. Pone Kingpetch, Thailand; 3. Sadao Yoaita, Japan.

Legion curlers reach playoffs for cup play

Playoff positions in the Legion Cup curling event were captured by Jock Collier, Bob Armstrong, Hal Mede and Si Miners.

Barely scraping into the fourth and final playoff position was Si Miners, as his high score record only, placed him in the position ahead of five other teams who had the same won-loss record.

Miners will face Armstrong, and Collier is paired against Mede in the playoffs when ice is available.

In the meantime play in the Jeannie Warren event begins Sunday, January 3 with the following teams drawn: Lemire vs Miners; Gomez vs Kerr; Tubb vs Collier; Simundson vs Fletcher; Lewis vs Gordon; Armstrong vs Mede.

Last Night's Fights

McKEESPORT, Pa. (AP)—Johnny Morris, 164, Pittsburgh, outpointed Bobby Stininato, 175, Cleveland, (8).

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Kenny Lane, 143, Muskegon, Mich., knocked out Ray Lancaster, 146½, Spartanburg, S.C., (3).

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Boots Monroe, 122½, Los Angeles, outpointed Baby Brown, 124, Manila, (10).

Rossland trio tops Olympic ski trials

KIMBERLEY (CP)—Three Rossland, B.C. shiers, two of them sisters, took the first three places in final points based on four women's events at the Canadian Olympic ski trials here.

Elizabeth Green topped national competition with 28.3 points for the slalom, giant slalom and two downhills. Her sister Nancy was second with 23.4 points and Pat Nora was third with 22.6.

Jean Lessade of Sherbrooke, Que., gained 28.9 points to win the men's final based on the same four events. Behind him were Bob Gilmour of Montreal with 25.1 and Fred Pommy, Ottawa, with 21.1.

The skiers move to Rossland Wednesday for five more races spread over a two-week period.

Following the three Rossland girls in the women's final were Linda Crutchfield, Shawnigan Falls, Que., 19.3; Ginger Edwards Rossland, 14.0; Faye Pitt, Montreal, 11.1 and Sandra Osborne, Rossland, 3.6.

Fourth place in the men's event went to Shaun Tripp, Ottawa with 21 points. Behind him were Rod Hepburn, Vancouver, 18.6; Vern Anderson, Rossland, 17.8, Al Perrep, Vancouver, 17.5, Arnold Midgeley, Ottawa, 14.4, Jean Guy Burnet, St. Agaphe, Que., Don Bruneski, Rossland, 9.9, and D'Arcy Marsh, Ottawa, 9.5.

Also training here for the 1960 winter Olympics is Norwegian jumper Torbjon Yggeseth. He made one jump of 249 feet in practice Monday.

Durnan quits as coach of Dutchmen

KITCHENER, Ont. (CP) — Kitchener - Waterloo Dutchmen, trying to shake off a miserable slump with their date in the Winter Olympics fast approaching, were in another jam today. No coach.

In addition to a record of 10 defeats in 14 hockey games this month, the Dutchmen ran into more grief Tuesday when coach Bill Durnan, former National League great, resigned. And nobody seemed anxious to jump into the breach.

Dutchmen are reported to have gone after Joe Primeau, only man ever to coach Stanley, Allan and Memorial Cup winners, to succeed Durnan. But they apparently were unsuccessful.

Primeau said in Toronto that he could not undertake a coaching burden.

Durnan, one-time great with Montreal Canadiens of the NHL who won the Vezina Trophy for goaltenders six times, said he quit because of the team's dismal showing in the Ontario Hockey Association Senior A series. He said the club's performance was a case of "not enough horses."

Injuries aid the fact that the Dutchmen were concentrating on amateur players to qualify as an Olympic candidate were said to be other factors for the lack of success.

Changes story

BOSTON (AP) — Middleweight Paul Pender told the Massachusetts boxing commission Tuesday he knows of no wrongdoing in the fight game in this state.

The Brookline fighter, who meets Sugar Ray Robinson Jan. 22 for the Massachusetts and New York version of the world championship, was called before the commission after a newspaper article quoted him as saying boxing is infested with thieves and gangsters.

Pender told the commission a sports writer made the article sensational. He added he had agreed with the writer's suggestion that a five-year abolishment of boxing would be a remedy for its ills.

Russian top man

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—Vasily Kuznetsov, Russia's world record holder in the decathlon, was named Europe's athlete of 1959 in a poll conducted by the Polish news agency, the agency said Tuesday.

He defeated Ingemar Johansson, Sweden's world heavyweight boxing champion, by 51 points.
