Large Attendance at Chamber O. Commerce Meeting—Five New Members Elected

Continuation of renewed interest on the part of business men of Prince Rupert in matters pertaining to the promotion and development of matters of business and public concern was manifested at the monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night which was marked by an attendance of 40 members and at which there were four new elections to membership. Climax of the meeting, which dealt with a wide variety of matters of interest under headings of correspondence and committee reports, was a stirring and optimistic address by H. G. Perry, life honorary president of the Prince George Board of Trade, who spoke with high confidence of the future of Prince Rupert, the great central and northern interior hinterland and Canada as a whole in the bright new world.

President G. A. Hunter was in the chair and he welcomed, besides Mr. Perry as a guest, Hawthorne Graham, representative of the Prince Rupert Junior Chamber of Commerce, and recently elected new members in the persons of Earl Gordon, L. M. Felsenthal and Harold Whalen.

Richmond E. Mortimer, William Cruickshank, Arthur Murray and George L. Rorie were elected to membership in the chamber. Membership of Orme G. Stuart, who has been away on active service, was renewed.

Sheet Metal Firm Coming to Rupert

Announcement was made at the meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last evening that the A. W. Thomas Sheet Metal Works of Vancouver is to open an establishment in Prince Rupert, having purchased the building on First Avenue near Market Place formerly occupied by Frank Murphy. The concern will engage in the manufacture of tanks with a small crew of men.

TONIGHT'S TRAIN LATE

Due to late connections at Jasper, tonight's train, due from the East at 10:45, is reported to be seven hours late. There was a small derailment of two freight cars at Rearguard, 18 miles west of Red Pass Junction, but this was not the cause of delay to tonight's train.

WAR-SHOCKED TOTS GET AID

Unitarian Committee Send Cash and Goods to Children

OTTAWA (CP)—A total of $250,000 was raised last year in money and clothing by the Unitarian Service Committee of Canada for the relief of war-shocked children of Europe.

The amount raised included $70,000 in cash and $180,000 worth of goods including used clothing, pharmaceuticals, food blankets and textiles.

Under the committee's foster-parent scheme, 1,100 European children have been adopted in Canada—431 in British Columbia, 84 in Alberta, 217 in Manitoba, 176 in Saskatchewan, 71 in Hamilton, 43 in Toronto, 88 in Ottawa and 38 in Montreal.

Responsibility of the committee is growing daily, said Dr. Lotta Hitschmanova, executive-director, who has just returned from a Dominion-wide lecture tour. "I should like to find foster-parents for 2,000 children within the next three months."

Britain Pays High For French Corsets

LONDON (CP) — French corsets and brassieres are back in British shops after a lapse of more than six years.

Retailing at prices up to £6 ($24), the garments are deemed superior to the British "utility" models into which British women had to squeeze during the war.

"BRIGHTEN UP" CHURCHES TOLD

Urges Electric Signs, Modern Interior Color

LONDON (CP) — The church should take a lesson from movie theatres and pubs and take advantage of electric signs and flood lighting to make itself known and attractive, says the Methodist Church department of chapel affairs.

These are some other suggestions in the report:

Old stone walls around churchyards should be removed.

A "proper, modern use of color" could replace the black-and-gold lettering of notice boards and posters are desirable.

Inside church buildings, simple color could with advantage replace the stencilled designs and texts which often "disfigure" the walls.

Provision of a church canteen aids the fellowship life.

The church with a stage for production of cheap comedies would be better off without it, but effective use of suitable drama makes a contribution to the life and spirit of the church.

BBC SEEKS HOME FOR TELEVISION

LONDON (CP)—The BBC's tenancy of mammoth Alexandra Palace—headquarters of television broadcasts—has expired.

Palace trustees plan to recreate the building for its original purpose as an entertainment centre with a rebuilding scheme costing several million pounds.

Meanwhile, the BBC is seeking a new home for television, which has suffered from lack of space since the service reopened last summer.

SHIP OF DESERT LOSING TO PLANE

MONTREAL, (CP)—The ship of the desert is being replaced by the ship of the sky.

Mohsen Shebab-El-Din, Egyptian delegate to the Provisional International Civil Aviation Organization's council, advises that if you wish to visit the stone Sphinx or labor-built pyramids, take an airplane. It's got it all over the camel.

In the subject of aviation generally the Egyptians delegate said: "Cairo is the hub of aviation for the Mediterranean area and the Middle East. We have 10 commercial airlines operating in and out of the city and there is a great deal of military flying."

TORQUAY, Eng. (CP)—Sir Henry Martyn, former surgeon apothecary to the King's Household at Windsor Castle, died in Devon, at the age of 58.

RADIO "HAMS" ORGANIZE HERE

About 40 amateur radio enthusiasts have responded to a call by Frank Parlette to organize a group of "hams" in Prince Rupert. Some of those who responded are holders of operating licenses while others are men whose interest in amateur broadcasting has just been recently aroused. The group will hold its organizational meeting in the Civic Centre tonight.
