25 YEARS AGO

June 7, 1922

Westbound passenger trains from Jasper were delayed by high water on the Skeena which flooded the tracks between Kwinitsa and Salvus. A pile driver was at work in the region making the tracks safe.

The new provincial government court house would be completed by August 1, stated C. McDougall, head of the firm of McDougall and McNeil, which, with Albert and McCaffery, were building the fine new structure.

The School Board decided to call in two more architectural experts to examine Booth Memorial School after they learned that the repair of the building, as recommend by structural engineer A. A. Cox, would entail the expenditure of a large sum of money.

Seasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

CARE IN CANNING NECESSARY; SOME OF LATEST PROCESSES

All life is made up of what is commonly termed "vicious circles" . . . although in reality they are not all victims. Even canning is a part of one of these circles, for we plant, can and eat. The planting season is now with us, and in most homes the supply of canned foods has reached the low level of the year. With the maturity of the fruits and vegetables in their season, the problem of preserving summer's bounty for winter use presents itself once again.

There are many factors which enter into successful canning. It is a process in which each step must be followed meticulously. Unapproved short cuts may result in failure and loss.

4 quart boxes strawberries
OR 8 cups crushed strawberries
6 cups sugar

Wash, hull, crush and measure strawberries. Bring to boiling point and precook, uncovered, for 15 minutes. Add sugar, bring to the boil and boil, uncovered, until jam stage is reached—about 12-15 minutes. Yield: 6½ cups.

Rhubarb Conserve

14 cups rhubarb (4 lbs.) cut in ½" pieces
3 cups raisins
7 cups sugar
Juice of 2 oranges
Rind of 2 oranges thinly sliced
½ to 1 cup walnuts

Combine rhubarb, raisins, sugar, orange juice and rind. Let stand ½ hour. Bring to boil and boil, uncovered, 40 minutes, stirring frequently. Add walnuts, coarsely chopped, and boil to jam stage—about 5 minutes. Pour into hot, sterilized jars. Cool and seal. Yield: about 12 cups.

Rhubarb Chutney

2 lbs. rhubarb (7 cups)
Few grains of cayenne pepper
1 large onion
¾ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon ground ginger
1 teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon cloves
¼ teaspoon allspice
1 teaspoon whole pickling spices (tied in cheesecloth bag)
1 cup vinegar
1¼ cups sugar

Wash and cut rhubarb into ½" pieces. Peel, slice and cook the onion in a small quantity of water for 20 minutes in a covered pan. Add rhubarb, seasoning and ½ the vinegar. Cook until rhubarb is tender. Add sugar and remaining vinegar. Continue boiling over low heat, uncovered, until the chutney is of the consistency of jam—about 45 minutes. Yield: 2 pints.
