A TASK FOR GARDEN

A garden task which can be [illegible] in winter is the con[illegible] of a cold frame. Every [illegible] should have one; in [illegible]onth of the year there [illegible]ant service which it can [illegible].

[illegible] form cold frames have [illegible] by gardeners for cen[illegible]. Originally they were pits [illegible] the sun in which plants [illegible] sheltered from cold wind. [illegible] glass has been available, [illegible] out cold air but let in [illegible] warmth, cold frames [illegible] become more efficient and [illegible].

[illegible]dard glazed sash is dif[illegible] to get this year; but vari[illegible] substitutes are avail[illegible] which can be stretched on [illegible] frames and serve the same [illegible], while being much [illegible] than glazed sash, and un[illegible]able.

[illegible] make a cold frame is so [illegible] any one who can wield a [illegible] and hammer can do it. It [illegible]ually made 3 by 6 feet, or [illegible] multiple of this, for the [illegible] that standard hot-bed [illegible] are of the dimensions. But [illegible]old frame (or a hot-bed [illegible]) may be any size you wish, to fit old windows, or frames of any convenient size.

The frame should be constructed of heavy boards, of cypress, white pine or some wood which resists rot. Dig a hole in the ground slightly larger than the size of the frame. It should be at least a foot deep. Into this hole put the frame you have built so that 6 inches of it is beneath the surface and the remainder above. This will insure that no drafts enter from beneath. Construct the frame so that the front is 6 inches above the surface, and the rear, 12 inches. It must slant toward the south, where the winter sun shines. It is well to hinge the sash at the top of the frame, so it can be easily opened for transplanting purposes and airing.

A sunny spot in the garden, protected as much as possible from the full force of winds and driving rain, is the best situation for the cold frame. It may be too cold now to dig in the garden, but the sash may be procured and the lumber frame made, so that when the first warm days arrive you are ready for serious gardening.

HAVANT, Hampshire, England (CP) — Stockheath Camp, which housed nearly 500,000 British and Dominion's naval officers and ratings during the war, has been closed.

BLACKHEADS
To remove blackheads—dissolve them. Get ounces of peroxine powder from any drug store and apply gently with wet, hot cloth over blackheads. They dissolve and disappear by this safe simple method.

ORANGE PRICES MOVING LOWER

Slump in Citrus Fruit Market Reflected Here

A recent slump in American citrus fruit prices has had its reflection on local grocery store shelves where oranges are down as much as 22 cents a dozen in some sizes and 16 cents in other sizes. Oranges now range in price from 28 to 62 cents according to size. Lemons, formerly in the vicinity of 60 cents a dozen, now range from 37 to 47 cents.

The price of lard, which moved up a few cents in December, recently jumped another six to eight cents a pound, and is now selling for 28 cents.

HEAT CAUSES BLASTS

TROWBRIDGE, Eng., (CP) — When military huts were damaged by fire, local residents heard what they thought were "ammunition explosions" caused by tiles and dry timber splitting in the heat.

HOW CAN I ? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make a cement for pipe joints?

A. Mix ten pounds of yellow ocher, four pounds of ground litharge, four pounds of whiting, one-half pound of hemp, cut up fine. Mix together with linseed to about the consistency of putty.

Q. How can I remove a rusty screw?

A. Heat a poker or spike red-hot and apply it to the head of a screw that is rusty and obstinate. When the screw has become hot it can be removed very easily.

Q. How can I take away all dampness of rooms?

A. Place blocks of camphor in all corners and on shelves, replacing them as they evaporate.

GOWNS FROM MODEST SHOP

Little Known Dressmaker Makes Princesses' Dresses For South African Tour

LONDON, (CP) — Many of the clothes to be worn by Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret when they tour South Africa now are in the hands of "Miss Ford," a little-known London dressmaker who has designed clothes for them since they were young children.

"I have been dressing the princesses for many years, but few people know of this," said Miss Ford in an interview in her modest store on Albemarle Street.

"I have executed many of the dresses, gowns and outfits for the royal tour."

Other clothes are being designed by more famous dressmakers, including Molyneux and Norman Hartnell.

The princesses have been given extra clothes coupons but are also making over many dresses culled from their wardrobes.

FUNERAL AT METLAKATLA

Local Veterans Join With Villagers in Final Rites For Albert Leighton

Veterans of World War I from Prince Rupert journeyed to Metlakatla Saturday afternoon to participate with the villagers there in the funeral rites for the late Albert Leighton, native veteran of the First Great War, who had succumbed here last week after long suffering from disabilities of that conflict.

The funeral service was held at St. Paul's Anglican Church where Rev. Basil S. Prockter of Prince Rupert officiated with Mrs. Alvin Leask presiding at the organ to accompany the hymns which were "O God Our Help in Ages Past" and "Lead, Kindly Light."

Following the service the cortege proceeded across the passage to the cemetery at Auriol Point where interment was made in the family plot. The "Last Post" was sounded over the final resting place by Bugler W. J. Rance of Prince Rupert while snow fell gently into the open grave into which the flag-draped casket was lowered.

There were two groups of pallbearers. One, consisting of members from Prince Rupert, comprised J. A. Allen, Bert Wouden, Edgar Woodward, W. J. Rance G. Leighton and J. A. Teng. The other group consisted of Cecil Ryan, Howard Nelson and John Ryan, representing the village council of Metlakatla, and John Auckland, John Louth and George Ryan of the Young Men's Benevolent Association.

Beautiful floral offerings included wreaths from Peter Leighton and son, Dick; Robert Leighton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown and family, Sue and family, Mr. and Mrs Gus Leighton, Mr. and Mrs. G. Delgren and son, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Leighton, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wouden, Mrs. Christina Leighton and Horace, Gus Sampare, Mrs. Alice Leighton, Mr. and Mrs. George Haldane, Mrs. Ryan and family, Mr. and Mrs R. D. Leighton and family, Canadian Legion (Prince Rupert), Young Men's Benevolent Association, Ladies' Benevolent Association, Metlakatla Council, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Ryan and family, Mrs. E. Steele and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ryan and family, Mary and Myrtle, Mr. and Mrs. George Ryan and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Bacon and William Bacon.
