Francois Lake, B.C.—A bear has been coming down to the Hickey corral near Clarence Hickey's home and on Tuesday night, hearing a commotion amongst the stock, he went out with his rifle. Sure enough, there was the bear, and Clarence shot twice and her troubles were over. Then he saw what he thought was a bear cub and although it was dark he shot again and the animal fell dead. It is not difficult to imagine how he felt when he saw that he had shot his own black collie dog. He has another dog fortunately.

One of our travellers called in on Friday morning and said that he had seen a young moose trying to get over the barbed wire fence beside the road about four miles back of us on the Burns Lake road.

Thursday is our early closing day for the store and Post Office and it was a beautiful day, warm and still. Hal and I went across the lake to Hamres Bay and we had really wonderful fishing and brought home 19 rainbow trout. We also tried for char but didn't get a single strike.

✣ ✣ ✣

Keith Murdock and his friend Tommy Hiltz drove in from Prince Rupert on Wednesday noon and gave us the news of the family back home. They left to go to Vanderhoof for some shooting, but on the way they unfortunately rolled their car over and wrecked it. Keith bought another in Burns Lake we hear.

Mr. and Mrs. Gault and their son Jeffrey from Michigan returned again this year to go hunting with Ruth and Roy Lord, who have both a class A guides license. They called in on their way home from Nadina and told us that they had their grizzly which was what they were wanting this year.

✣ ✣ ✣

Mr. and Mrs. Einar Carlson, David and Debbie are visiting their friends the Calder family. They left the baby Cindy at home in Prince Rupert. They are enjoying fishing and camping. It is three years since they were here before.

Folk who come in the store are intrigued by our hop vine which is thriving inside the store and creeping over the wall. One stalk pushed its way through a crack in the window casing from outside and is able to get enough nourishment to let it thrive inside. It really seems a miracle.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sims stayed over one night on their way home to Prince Rupert after spending their holidays with relations in Vancouver. We have also had Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Thomas staying in the Log Cottage. This is their first visit to Francois Lake. Mrs. Thomas fractured her wrist which is now out of a cast but is bandaged. She slipped and fell when working in the Bakery Department of the Co-op.

My sister Emmie and Bert Ward were surprised in their home at West Summerland last week whne our two sons Hugh and Peter and their families arrived within a few hours of each other. Hugh and Josephine and the children had driven down from here for a week travelling about, and Peter and Beulah and the little daughter were on their way home to Royal Oak, near Victoria. Already with the Wards were their friends from Prince Rupert, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and their son Ricky, also Mrs. Kerr, Mr. Johnson's mother.

Bert Ward kindly took Hugh and his family to see a turkey ranch where 12,000 turkeys are being raised, also to the Experimental Farm which impressed them very much, especially the lovely flowers.

A rattlesnake had bitten the turkey rancher's dog, a valuable animal used to handle the turkeys, and all was being done to try and save him.

This interested our grandchildren who have never before been near a snake or heard much about them.

The Wards are very happy in their new home and surrounding and are enjoying their garden and orchard. They sent us a box of plums and some apples, but the fruit is late this year, it having been cooler than usually.

Captain and Mrs. R. Johnson of Haney are staying with their freinds the Amies for a few days. They drove up from Haney.

FRANCOIS LAKE NEWS

There are only three beginners at school this term—Danny Rensby, Victor Kramer and our granddaughter, Marie Neave. She has been looking forward to this for so long, and has had her school supplies ready for weeks. All that troubled her was how her small brother Mark would manage without her, as she has never left him before.
