Prairie Couple Married Here

Miss Marjorie McCool Becomes Bride of Leslie Forrest

The Lotbiniere Street home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Franklin was the setting for a pretty wedding on Wednesday when their niece, Miss Marjorie McCool, became the bride of Leslie Forrest. Both the bride and groom are from Zealandia, Saskatchewan. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. A. Wilson of First United Church.

Given in marriage by her uncle, the bride looked lovely in a silver-grey wool ensemble. She carried a bouquet of deep pink carnations. Her only jewelry was an antique necklace, gift of her aunt.

Matron-of-honor was Mrs. Lestre Franklin, attired in a brown-and-gold silk Jersey dress with corsage of yellow carnations.

Groomsman was Robert Franklin and Lloyd Franklin was guest attendant.

The vows were exchanged beneath an arch of pink-and-white streamers, centred with wedding bells.

At a reception which followed, the toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. R. A. Wilson, with response by the groom. A second toast to the bride was proposed by Robert Franklin who expressed his delight at having the opportunity to act as groomsman at his cousin's wedding.

A toast was proposed by Lloyd Franklin to his parents, on whose twenty-eighth wedding anniversary the nuptials took place.

Delicious refreshments were served, with Mrs. Samuel Dumas acting as pourer and Mrs. William Adolph and Miss Izyk and Miss Zabudney as serviteurs.

The newly married couple left the city on Thursday night's boat, and will visit Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle before returning to their home at Zealandia.
