Grotto Play reaches "eights"

Only eight teams remain in contention for the Grotto Men's curling trophy with all teams scheduled in the quarter-finals at 7 p.m. tonight.

The semi-finals will take place immediately following at 9 p.m. with the final to take place Sunday afternoon at 3:30.

In last night's games the McKay-J. Macdonald match resulted in a win for Macdonald which eliminated McKay from a play-off berth and allowed Simundson to take the third play-off berth on a shot scored basis over Cooper. Simundson was then eliminated in his play-off game at 9 p.m. by the Joe Scott quartette.

Scott will be meeting Peter Bell tonight as a result of his narrow victory over Earl Gordon also at 9 p.m. last night. In other 9 p.m. games last night and situated also in the lower bracket of the quarter-finals on the drawsheet—Dominato defeated Newton and Garner won from Tuttle.

In the upper bracket the Smith and Manson rinks were called upon to curl two games in a row after Smith upsetting Ken Warren and Manson defeated Eyolfson in the 7 o'clock draw. Manson then proceeded to eliminate Smith and as a result will come up against Rudderham tonight.

Rudderham won his way into the quarter-finals handily with a clear cut victory over the Gomez rink, winners of the Cook's Jewellers cup.

In the other quarter-finals match in the upper bracket scheduled for tonight at 7 p.m. are the Anderson and Mitchell rinks who won from Ward and J. Eby last night.

City rink competing in Brier play here

The first attempt of the Prince Rupert Men's Curling club to enter a representative into MacDonald Brier play will take place at the Seal Cove curling rink this week-end.

Teams from Kitimat and Terrace are already entered with a possibility of a team from Smithers to produce a representative from this zone in the provincial play-offs which are scheduled at Vernon, B.C., in conjunction with their bonspiel early in February.

The Gomez rink of Prince Rupert was victorious over the Jack Eby quartet the only other team interested from the local club.

The local Brier competition was a best two of three games series with Gomez winning two games straight last week-end although both matches were closely contested.

In the zone play-downs this week-end the winners from each of the points mentioned above will play a double-knockout competition with two matches scheduled Saturday night at 7 and 9 p.m. and two matches to be played Sunday afternoon at 1:30 and 3:30 p.m.

Interested curlers and members of the public are invited to watch these zone playdowns and a social evening with refreshments is planned for Saturday evening.

Baby for widow of Tyrone Power

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Tyrone Power's widow gave birth to a son Thursday. The five-pound, 12-ounce baby was born to Mrs. Deborah Power two months and seven days after the actor's death of a heart attack in Madrid. He was on movie location when stricken.

Bad dogs' home

LONDON (AP)—Britain's National Canine Defence League today suggested delinquent dogs should be sent to reform school.

The league wants Parliament to accept a new dog's charter ending the power of British magistrates to sentence bad dogs to death.

U.S. denounced

LONDON (AP)—Peiping radio reported Thursday that gatherings of Chinese workers, officials and students have denounced "the U.S. imperialists for interfering in Cuba's internal affairs and the Belgian colonizers for suppressing independence of the Belgian Congo."
