GREAT SUSPENSE DRAMA SHOWING

John Galsworthy's "Escape," said to be one of the greatest suspense dramas of modern times, showing on the screen of the Capitol Theatre in filmization starring Rex Harrison and Peggy Cummins, is the story of a man who plunged into a desperate adventure to fight injustice, and of a girl who gambled all on her love for an escaped convict. The film marks the first times Harrisons and Miss Cummins have been paired on the screen.

Many of the manhunt sequences of the film were shot in the moors surrounding Dartmoor prison, England's Sing Sing, which houses the country's most dangerous thugs, plug uglies and hoodlums.

During the filming of "Escape," a revolt was still smouldering in the prison, and wardens were combing the moors for several escaped convicts. As a result, Rex Harrison and other actor convicts were subjected to an identification check before entering the moors, and after leaving. Whenever Harrison took to the underbrush to avoid the movie police, a number of actual police surrounded him outside camera range to ward off zealous hunters of the real-life escapees.

Savoys opened the scoring in the second inning of Sunday's baseball game when Nick Pavilikis got on base on balls and came home on a fielder's error which put Gurvich on second where he was left when the side was retired. Commercials evened the score in the fith with a single by Letourneau and moved into the lead in the sixth when Windle and Cornwell scored, both off singles. Savoy took one run in the sixth when Lindsay singled and came home off a hit by Pavilikis. The seventh, however, saw Savoy regain the lead when they brought in four runs, all off Letorneau. Bruce Simundson and Arney each singled and were brought home by Lindsay's double. Lindsay came home off a double by Pavilikis and Pavilikis scored off a single by Morgan.

Savoy scored two in the ninth, Arney, who got a base on balls, was scored by a hit by Pavilikis who came in on a single by Gurvich. The game ended 8 to 5 for Savoy.

Pavilikis ran up a .1000 record by marking up four hits off four official times at bat.

Windle scored two runs off two hits in five times at bat and Cornwell marked two runs in three official times at bat.

WORLD SERIES FILMS ENJOYED

Not only were baseball fans—young and old—given an actionful pictorial treat but a goodly sum was netted for Boy Scout work with a showing of World Series baseball pictures Friday afternoon and evening in the Civic Centre auditorium. Four hundred and fifty persons attended the two shows and collections resulted in generous response.

F. E. Anfield, chairman of the Prince Rupert Boy Scout Association, was in the chair and introduced to the audience four Prince Rupert Boy Scouts who will go to the Dominion Jamboree in Ottawa this summer.

Joe Goscoe, Armine Boas and Fred Conrad assisted with putting on the show and Scouts in uniform acted as ushers.

EXECUTIVE OF SOCCER MEETS

At a meeting of the executive of the Prince Rupert Football Association last evening in the Civic Centre plans were discussed fo rthe final of the Dominion Day football cup.

In this competition the Canadian Legion will play the General Motors team. The Canadian Legion gained their place in the final by defeating the Heavy Battery while the General Motors had the luck to draw and got a bye into the final round. The game is set for Dominion Day between the two games of the baseball doubleheader.

Dissatisfaction was expressed at the failure of the Parks Board to reply to a request in the early part of May for the allotment of the Acropolis Grounds for dates for football games. The request will be renewed asking that the footballers be allotted Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening. At present the baseballers have the grounds on Sundays, Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Postponed games in the North Star, City League competition were set as follows:

June 29—Heavy Battery vs. General Motors.

July 6—General Motors vs. Canadian Legion.

July 13—Canadian Legion vs. Heavy Battery.

This Friday's game will be in the North Star-City League between General Motors and Canadian Legion.

Present at the meeting were J. S. Wilson, presiding, S. P. Woodside, R. P. Smith, Glen Olson, Jack Eby and Percy Bond.

EXERCISE TESTS CANINE I.Q.—The R.A.F. is training Alsatian dogs for police work on its wide-world stations. Seventy dogs, most of them bred at the R.A.F. Police Dog Training centre at Staverton near Gloucester, will stage a public display next month, entitled "R.A.F. Police Dogs on Parade." Here Cpl. Pate of West Bromwich gives "Wolf" a pick-aback ride. This exercise helps to find the intelligence of the dog.

More Old Age Pensions

Federal payments have been twice increased since 1945. The new pension basis is now increased to $40.00 a month, (in B. C. $50.00 per month in total) providing greater comfort and security for the aged and blind.

In British Columbia, Old Age Pensions of $100 per month are paid to a married couple of pensionable age. Supplementary income may be added to provide an annual total of $1320.

In other words, the $100 pension is equal to 3% of $40,000 which the earning member of the family would have had to save in his 40 working years at $1000 per year.
