LLOYD-GEORGE INVITED TO VISIT SEATTLE

LLOYD-GEORGE AND HIS DAUGHTER

SEATTLE WELSHMEN ASK LLOYD GEORGE TO CITY

Chancellor of Exchequer Is Invited to Visit the Sound City

Seattle, Dec. 7.—David Lloyd George, chancellor of the Exchequer of Great Britain, who will visit Canada next September, has been asked by the Welsh Society of Washington to visit Seattle and deliver an address. Albert B. Moses is president of the organization and Joseph D. Thomas is secretary. The distinguished Briton has already agreed to visit the Canadian provinces and it is understood that six American cities will be included in his itinerary.

The Washington Welshmen want Seattle included in the cities to be visited on this side of the line, and to that end have already extended an invitation.

ROYAL GEORGE STARTS ON GLASGOW RUN TODAY

Big Steamer Stranded in the St. Lawrence Is Ready for Her Trip.

Quebec, Dec. 6.—There is every indication that the C. N. R. steamer Royal George will be ready to sail for Glasgow on Saturday. The bottom of the vessel under No. 2 hold has been temporarily repaired and in the words of Captain Thompson, marine superintendent of the company, is now as tight as a corked bottle. Yesterday a survey of the vessel was proceeded with and a sworn statement was made by Diver Begin regarding the repairs and the steamer's ability to proceed safely to sea.

The evidence given by Pilot Sam Rioux in the Royal George inquiry tended to corroborate that of previous witnesses, the pilot stating that he had set his course between two lights which he thought to be those of the Beaumont gas buoy and the St. Lawrence wharf. Rioux has been a pilot for thirty-four years and has piloted more than five thousand ships. His only previous accident was when the boat of which he was in charge struck some sunken wreck.

ANGRY AT MISSING HIS TRAIN HE SHOTS MAN

Seattle, Dec. 7.—Elwood McConnell, 42 years old, was shot by his companion, Christ Knudson, 23 years old, at Kanasket station after the two men had attacked O. D. Finch, Northern Pacific agent, and Owen Ackley, a telegraph operator. McConnell vented his wrath on Finch, it is said, when he missed a train. Finch ordered him from the station. Knudson came to the front and drew a revolver. Finch seized Knudson and Ackley held McConnell. In the struggle Knudson's revolver was
