LIBRARY HONORS PRIEST

RESERVE, N.S. (CP)—A library has been begun here in honor of Dr. J. J. Tompkins, pioneer in the adult education movement of St. Francis Kavier University. "Father Jimmy" Tompkins recently retired as Roman Catholic parish priest at Reserve.

"GLORIOUS 12TH" CELEBRATED HERE

Members of the Ladies' Orange Benevolent Association and the Loyal Orange Lodge gathered with friends on Tuesday night to celebrate the Glorious Twelfth of July.

About 100 persons sat down to refrshments after which there was a program of appropriate speeches and entertainment.

Mrs. George Howe, past worshipful grand mistress for the province, presented honorary certificates to five long-standing and esteemed members — Mrs. C. Barber, Mrs. E. Murray, Mrs. J. W. Moorehouse, Mrs. A. Guyan and Mrs. J. G. Viereck. Each recipient spoke briefly in acknowledgement.

Mrs. C. Smith, who has been a member for twenty-seven years, thus qualified as the doyen of the local lodge, also spoke.

Other speakers were Victor Morrison and J. A. Teng who dwelt on the subject of the unswerving loyalty of all good Orangemen to flag and king.

The highlight of the evening's entertainment was a men's fashion show in which the masculine models, in ludicrous impersonation, wore ladies' negligees, evening and sportswear. The mannequins were J. Davidson, L. Newton, V. Morrison and A. S. Hamilton. Bride and groom were A. Van Horne and H. Hamilton. Flower girl and page boy were Mrs. L. Traquair and A. Lind.

Mrs. George Howe caused merriment in carrying out the duties of commentator. J. A. Teng sang "Alice Blue Gown" and "Grandfather's Night Shirt."

Chorus girls were M. Wide, A. Kund, O. Newton, and E. Mulder; hula girls, J. A. Teng, A. Lund; barber shop quartette, B. Ellison, A. Denton, H. Hamilton and F. Van Horne, can can girls, J. A. Teng, V. Morrison, S. Newton and A. S. Hamilton. H. Hauser and A. Borgan also supplied musical entertainment

The evening concluded with dancing.

Mrs. J. R. Murray was convener, asisted by members of both lodges.

HOME RITE JOINS COUPLE

A quiet wedding ceremony at the home of the bride's mother joined Gladys Skaland, daughter of Mrs. Otto Breimo, 736 Sixth Avenue West, to Harvey James Weiss, son of William D. Weiss, 101 Fifth Avenue East, on Tuesday evening. The rite was performed in the flower-banked living room by Rev. Earl Soiland of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

For her wedding costume, the bride chose a gown of white satin, and carried a bouquet of red roses. Maid-of-honor was Miss Molly Woods whose gown was of blue sheer. Her bouquet was of yellow daisies.

Members of the immediate families and a few friends attended the ceremony.

Groomsman was Le Roy Weiss, uncle of the bridegroom.

A reception, attended by close family friends, followed the ceremony. Guests enjoyed a buffet luncheon followed by dancing. Music was supplied by an instrumental trio consisting of David Jones, Le Roy Weiss and Mel Skalmerud.

HONORED ON LEAVING CITY

Imminent departure of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Moller, 124 Fourth Avenue East, for Vancouver where they will take up future residence, was marked by a surprise party Wednesday evening when some 30 friends gathered at their home to bid them farewell.

The evening was spent playing court whist, after which, delicious refreshments were served. On behalf of the assembly, Mrs. Frank Ellison presented Mrs. Moller with a lovely cameo necklace, and wished all the family happiness in their new home.

Winners at court whist were Mrs. Moller and Mrs. Harry Paulson. Lucky chair prize was won by Mrs. H. Hamilton.

The evening concluded with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."
