BASKETBALL AT TERRACE

TERRACE—Basketball at the Civic Centre is going ahead well with two teams getting in a lot of practice on Wednesday and Thursday nights. Between the BASKETS

As this column is being read today, rival coaches of the Prince Rupert All-Stars and Vancouver Arrows are planning their respective strategies to be executed for the enjoyment of the fans at the Civic Centre this evening. This, the second annual Vancouver-Prince Rupert series, is drawing interest rivalling the recent Globe Trotter show simply because Prince Rupert already has two straight victories to its credit over the smart Vancouver outfit and it is expected Alex Bill will produce two more before Thursday midnight.

In a Vancouver report published yesterday, the remark regarding a "successful" jaunt up this way last year by the Arrows caused a bit of comment around the Civic Centre last evening. Many were curious as to why Mr. Milton or anyone down that way might call the trip a "success." After all two losses in two games could easily be called the opposite!

Seats for this series are still available at the Civic Centre, a few reserved for this evening and, of course, the usual number of rush for each night. Don Forward, Civic Centre secretary, announced last evening at the Port Simpson-Savoy game that he expects a complete sell-out so those who are not already equipped with ducats might do well to call the Civic Centre now.

It is learned with regret that that fighting crew of ladies representing Miller Bay Hospital in the Ladies' League has been forced to withdraw from competition due to injuries and general shortage of material. These

CITY TEAMS TAKE TWO GAMES IN BASKETBALL WITH PORT SIMPSON

Savoys 52, Port Simpson Seniors 23
Port Simpson Intermediates 29, Merchants 23
North Star 23, Port Simpson Juniors 20

Port Simpson basketball teams on Tuesday invaded Prince Rupert for a one-night stand against local opposition. The series took the place of the usual regular league games in the Civic Centre Gym.

In the final game of the evening Port Simpson Seniors succumbed to a vengeful Savoy squad, whom they had defeated on their home floor several weeks ago. The final score was 52 to 38.

Savoy opened their offensive at the start and quickly took the lead which they never lost. Simpson had difficulty in their shooting and this held down their scoring. The quarter ended 11 to 4 for the locals. In the second quarter Savoy were sparked by Pierce as they widened their ever-growing lead to 15 points at half-time—25 to 10.

In the third quarter Simpson began to click and cut the big lead to 12 points. Their passing and pivot plays were working with Ed Sampson coming through with 4 big points. The quarter ended 38-26. The driving Simpson offensive continued and they reached to within 8 points of Savoy when it was stalled and Savoy banged in several quick baskets. The fast breaking play continued with no let-up to the final bell.

Port Simpson played a driving offensive game that worked the pivot for many lay-ups. Their passing and teamwork was smooth although at times their speed was too fast for their type of play on a big court.

Savoy featured a fast-breaking attack that was clicking all the game. Pierce led the scoring with 25 points. In the final quarter they came up with smooth passing and working the pivot.

INTERMEDIATE VICTORY

Port Simpson's only win of the evening came in the Intermediate game when they defeat-
