A. W. Newman, general freight agent, Union Steamships Ltd. and former agent for the company here, arrived from Vancouver on the Catala yesterday afternoon in the course of an official trip north and sailed last night on the Coquitlam to make the round trip to the Queen Charlotte Islands. He will return here tomorrow and will remain until Tuesday when he will sail by the Chilcotin on his return to Vancouver.

Restless Nights

Often mid-life brings on troublesome irregularities in kidney functioning, an affliction which responds well to magnesian treatment, (MAGNOPILLS). Burning sensations, painful twitches are relieved, and the bladder returns to normal. The patient feels an almost immediate change for the better in his whole being.

Magnopills are for sale at all Drug Stores.

TOOTHSOME TOT—Six weeks old Sandra Joan Maude of Guelph, Ont., is astounding the dental profession but is blissfully unaware of the excitement that she is creating. Shown here in the arms of her mother, Sandra Joan has already cut six teeth and both doctors and dentists term such cases as "extremely rare." The first tooth put in an appearance when she was five weeks old and since then more teeth are appearing almost daily. Having teeth at birth is said to be more common.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Applewhaite sailed last night on the Coquitlam for the south Queen Charlotte Islands. Mrs. Applewhaite is making the round trip and will be back tomorrow afternoon. Mr. Applewhaite will return to the city by plane next Wednesday afternoon.

PRESBYTERIAN LADIES TEA

Visitors to the spring tea and sale of the First Presbyterian Church Ladies Aid held Thursday afternoon in the church hall were greeted with an attractive scene. Spring flowers adorning the tables set the motif for the function.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. C. G. Ham, president of the Ladies' Aid, and Mrs. George Sendall. Convener of the tea room was Mrs. John Bremner, assisted by Mrs. M. J. Keays, Mrs. J. A. Teng and Mrs. George Murray.

Pourers were Mrs. Alex McRae, Mrs. G. A. Hunter, Mrs. H. Calderwood and Mrs. William Reid. Acting as serviteurs were Mrs. William Noble, Mrs. M. Erickson, Mrs. R. L. Eby, Mrs. N. S. Brewer, Miss Jean Calderwood and Miss Heather Brewer.

In charge of the plant stall were Mrs. J. M. Simpson and Rev. George Sendall.

The fancy work stall was in charge of Mrs. W. W. Bowes and Mrs. Murdo MacArthur, while the plain sewing booth was directed by Mrs. N. McLean and Mrs. William Bremner. The white elephant stall was in charge of Mrs. E. J. Smith and Mrs. A. Martin. At the home cooking booth were Mrs. H. C. Halliday and Mrs. E. F. Saunders

Cashier was Mrs. J. W. McKinley.

City fire department answered a call at 9:30 this morning to the Imperial Oil wharf where a camp scow, owned by John Clausen, had caught fire after a tar-heating stove overflowed. The blaze was brought under control without damage to the scow.
