Young Couple Wed—

Married At Church Rite

Miss Dorothy Haudenschild And LeRoy Weiss Are United

The bridegroom's twenty-first birthday was also his wedding day when the pretty and interesting double-ring marriage rite of Miss Dorothy Rose Haudenschild, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Haudenschild, 510 Seventh Avenue West, to LeRoy Elmer Weiss, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Weiss, formerly of this city and now of White Rock, was performed last night at 8 o'clock in First Presbyterian Church. Rev. E. A. Wright, performed the ceremony before a floral-decorated chancel which featured two large baskets of gladioli, carnations and white asters.

John Currie presided at the organ to play the Wedding March as the bridal party consisting of the bride, on the arm of her father, who later gave her in marriage, led by a little floral girl, the matron of honor and two bridesmaids, entered the church.

A pretty picture was the young bride in her wedding costume of white nylon sheer over white bridal satin with embroidered bows studded with colored brilliants and embroidered silk net veil held in place with a white net coronet. She also wore a string of pearls, the gift of the groom, and carried a shower bouquet of pink rose buds.

Miss Betty Negraiff, the sister of the bride, was attractive in her gown of apricot net and lace with navy blue picture hat and matching gloves and shoes with shower bouquet featuring full blown gladioli.

The dainty bridesmaids were Miss Norma Neilson, in blue taffeta with shoulder length veil, and Miss Ann Petroff in pink crepe also with shoulder length veil.

Paulette Turcotte was a captivating little flower girl in floor length green nylon sheer with pink accessories and carrying a basket of petals which she scattered in the bridal path both at th church and the reception that followed.

David Jones was groomsman

W. H. Morgan

Roy F. MacGregor, vice-president of Seagram Distillers Western Limited, has announced the appointment of William H. Morgan as Sales Manager.

Mr. Morgan will direct sales of the company's products—Seagram's Crown Royal, Seagram's V.O., Seagram's "83", Seagram's King's Plate and Seagram's Special Old.

Mr. Morgan was born in Manitoba and educated in Edmonton. Formerly with R.C.A. Victor and Greyhound Bus Lines, Calgary, he was latterly General Traffic Manager of Greyhound in 1949.

Serving in the Italian and North Western European theatre of operations during the war, with Canadian Corps and 2nd Canadian Infantry Division, he received the M.B.E. and was twice mentioned in despatches. Mr. Morgan was demobilized with the rank of Major.

Sport Shots

Kincolith played nice football in their game with Prince Rupert Saturday although they hadn't played as a team for some weeks. Doolan did well in goal apart from an early mistake. Stevens and Adams were a very sound pair of backs. Vane and Lincoln were fast defenders and fed their forwards. Young was good. The forwards threatened with nice moves but found the Rupert defence strong. Smart did well at centre. McKay and Haldane were a dangerous wing and fast. Gurney's goal was a beauty.

Boulter did well and stopped a penalty. His running out at a penalty is against the rule. Eby was very reliable. Sunberg found Haldane a handful at times. Dunbar was very sure both at centrehalf and at back. Wellens played a hard game and drove into the goal mouth effectively. Mazzoni defended stubbornly and kicked well giving Pavlikis a lovely pass for the second goal. Olson started shakily but did well later and saved an almost certain goal. Armstrong played a fine game getting the ball under control cleverly and feeding both wings. He got a fine goal. Pavlikis also got a good goal. Ford showed good form and fed Wilson well. The latter centred and shot well. Murray was good at times and opened the scoring. Parkhouse was effective.

At the start Vane and Lincoln showed good ball control but Wellens sent Murray ahead and forced a corner. Wilson crossed twice when nicely fed by Ford but Adams cleared. Eby cleared McKay's centre and then Adams broke up a Rupert attack. Boulter now came on. Gurney and Doolan attacked but Doolan drove past. Haldane took a good corner kick but Dunbar cleared. Lincoln and Adams checked well and, from Wellens' pass, Pavlikis drove wide. Wilson crossed and the ball went to Murray whose shot was only partially stopped by Doolan and the locals were lucky to be a goal up. Boulter saved from Gurney. A clever Kincolith forward move was broken up by Dunbar. Wilson drove just too high. Eby checked well. Barton replaced Lincoln. McKay and Haldane attacked but Sunberg blocked the move. Wilson gave Pavlikis a perfect pass but the centre forward was too slow. Barton sent his forwards ahead and a penalty was given against Sunberg. McKay missed but as Boulter had run out before the ball was kicked it was ordered to be retaken and this time Boulter caught and cleared McKay's shot.
