WOMEN OF MOOSE NEWS

Ninety teenagers "have fun" at monthly WOTM dance

The monthly "Teen Town Dance" sponsored by the Childcare committee of the Women of the Moose, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Cecil Robinson was held on Thursday, October 8, in the Moose Temple with 90 teenagers in attendance.

During the evening two contests were held. Blake Kimura won the boys' contest of modelling an aeroplane from a newspaper and Marion Pierce won the girls' contest of making a table centrepiece from a colored paper plate, serviettes and pins.

Guest judges were Warnie Peterson and Donald Crowe.

Spot dance prizes were won by Ernest Cullin, Elizabeth Tintill, Ronald Quick and Joan Hanson.

Paul Postula donated the Wurlitzer for the dance and future affairs. It was announced that next dance will be held Thursday, November 12.

The committee wish to remind all parents that although these dances are open to all teenagers from 11 to 16 that a note of permission from the parent is necessary for admission.

In charge of the enjoyable hop were Mrs. William Walsh, Mrs. Ted Thompson, Mrs. Frank Miller and Mrs. William Pilfold.

At the Childcare committee meeting held at the home of Mrs. John Kasper, there were eight members present and guest Senior Regent Mrs. Arnold Assman. Mrs. Harold Britten. Mrs. Frank Miller and Mrs. Thompson were named to work the October 24 "Bingo Night." A rummage sale in the Moose Temple was planned for October 31. Anyone with rummage is asked to telephone 2540 or 4908 for pickup. The Children's Hallowe'en to be held October 30 is open to all children up to and including 12 years of age. The party will begin at 7 p.m. and conclude at 9 p.m., it was decided. Winner of the monthly prize was Mrs. Maude Helin. Next committee meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harold Britten.

Mrs. Catherine Murphy chaired the meeting of the WOTM Publicity committee held at the home of Mrs. Percy Bond with nine members and three guests present. Clippings were cut to be posted in the scrapbook and also to be sent to Mooseheart. Bingo was played with Mrs. Albert Eveleigh winning.

The Social Service committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Gordon Ronson, met at the home of Mrs. Hugh Perley with eight members and two guests present. Plans were completed to convene the fish pond at the WOTM bazaar, November 25. It was reported that the committee is selling Christmas cards. Bingo was played with the prize going to Mrs. Leslie Seale. Next meeting will be held November 9 at the home of Mrs. Seale.

At the September meeting of Moosehaven committee, nine members and two guests were present. Arrangements were made to visit the residents of the Pioneer Home and articles for sewing were handed out. Card games were played with Mrs. Emil Nordine and Mrs. Helen Tweed winning prizes. Mrs. Tweed, hostess for the night's meeting, held at her home served refreshments to conclude the session. Next meeting October 25 will be held at the home of Mrs. Nordine.

King Edward holds tea for mothers

Another successful tea for mothers of pupils beginning their first year at King Edward school was held Wednesday afternoon when Parent-Teacher association president Mrs. T. A. Johnstone welcomed many guests.

Special guest was Mrs. Arthur Logan, past-president of PT council, who spoke on the aims and objects of the PTA, discussing three copies of the PTA magazine, which she displayed.

A pleasant touch was given the affair when Grade 1 pupils presented Mrs. Johnstone with a corsage and boutonnieres to R. G. Moore, school principal and J. M. Phillipson, superintendent of School District 52.

The children also entertained their parents with nursery rhyme singing and recitations.

In his address to mothers, Mr. Moore spoke on the way parents must help their children adjust themselves to the school's operation.

Mr. Phillipson outlined the method used to teach reading in the Grade 1 classes.

Refreshments served by PTA members concluded the afternoon social.

WILSON-SAWAYAMA MARRIAGE

October 29 wedding plans presaged by affianced couple

Wedding plans were presaged today by Miss Nancy Taeko Sawayama, RN and Empson John Wilson, whose marriage will be an event of October 29 in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral.

Rev. G. T. Pattison will officiate at the 7:30 p.m. ceremony.

Miss Sawayama, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sawayama of Vernon, B.C., and a graduate of St. Paul's School of Nursing is on the staff of the Prince Rupert General Hospital.

Mr. Wilson, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wilson of this city, is a research supervisor with Columbia Cellulose Company, Ltd.

The bride-elect has chosen Miss Margaret Saunders, RN, of Burlingame, California to attend her as maid-of-honor and petite Sally Kilgour of this city to attend as flower-girl.

The groom-elect has asked Steve King to act as best man and performing ushering duties will be David Bown, Vernon Ciccone, Gordon Poffenroth and Peter Knox, all of this city.

Mrs. E. J. Smith will be organist for soloist Keith DeWitt.

WHITBOURNE, Nfld. (CP) — When Eugene Brown of nearby Blaketown found a big rat in his mink trap, he put it in a cage and fed it on a poison diet. The rat had been thriving for more than a month on the supposed poison.
