English Soccer Team Display Claimed Greatest Ever Seen

Hotspurs Trim All-Stars 9-2

By The Canadian Press

VANCOUVER — Ten thousand persons sat in Callister Park here Saturday and marvelled at the display of soccer put on by the famous English first division team, Tottenham Hotspurs, as they defeated British Columbia mainland All-Stars 9-2.

Oldtimers here said their equals have never been seen on this coast, and that as a team they surpassed Newcastle Uniteds' display here three years ago, although they had no outstanding star such as Jackie Milburn.

Tottenham led 5-0 at half.

Master tactician of attack was inside-right Les Bennett, who scored four goals. Len Duquemin, centre forward, netted twice, Sonny Walters and Tommy Harmer tallied one each, while Alf Ramsey, England's international fullback, netted the other counter from a penalty kick.

Dennis Rogers scored both counters for the losers.

Tottenham plays at Victoria Monday night and again in Vancouver Wednesday night.

SOFTBALL TONIGHT

Prince Rupert Softball League goes into action tonight with its opener between CC 300 and its Numbe 1 team (no sponsor). The game time is 7:30, at the Gyro ball park.

Remember when?

The great first base star Lou Gehrig of the New York Yankees died 11 years ago today after a two-year fight against a spinal ailment. Gehrig earned his "iron man" nickname by playing 2,130 consecutive scheduled American League baseball games in 14 years and participated in 34 world series contests. He had twice been chosen as the most valuable player in the American League.

City All-Stars Defeat Navy For Hanson Trophy

In Saturday night's Hanson Trophy football competition a team representing the city beat a Navy team by 5-1. But the value of the victory was dimmed by the fact that the Navy had only nine players in the first half and ten in the second.

Navy's Attwell was clever in turning a hot drive from Nuyten over the bar but had no chance at all when Maron headed in Verhaar's fine corner kick. Pat Wilson was hight in on the goalie to get the city's second goal and was close in again to pick up a loose ball to put city all-stars two goals up. Attwell turned a hard drive from Nuyten, but Rupert did most of the pressing. Jones and Haskell defended well.

On the resumption, the Navy had more of the play but Bishop was sound and Dunbar and Eby were reliable. The city forwards broke away and Verhaar beat Attwell completely with a shot from a very narrow angle. Nuyten made it 5-0 after a good forward combination. Boulter was called on and was finally beaten by Hanneford with a good shot.

City got the ball past Attwell but it was disallowed on the claim that it was offside.

Teams:

Navy—Attwell; Jones, Haskel; McCann, Webster, Code; Hall, Dovey, Hanneford, Ford.

Prince Rupert—Boulter; Eby, Dunbar; John Wilson, Bishop, Eckert; Verhaar, Hank Nuyten, Pat Wilson, Phillips, Maron.

For the Navy, Attwell did fairly well in goal. He did not take kindly to Pat Wilson's worrying tactics. Jones and Haskell defended soundly and got good length into their kicks. Webster, McCann and Code defended well with Webster showing good ball control. Hall and Dover showed real class in their footwork but

THE ROUND-UP

By GAYLE TALBOT

British Take To American Champ

British tennis enthusiasts are more excited about Maureen Connolly, the sensational youngster from San Diego, than they ahve been about any newcomer to their showers for many a year. They have taken the 17-year-old American champion to their hearts.

Dan Maskell, veteran Winmbledon professional who has played against all the great women stars, spent an houh across the net from little Mo.

"Maureen is a teacher's dream girl. She is technically as sound as a bell, as well as being one of the fittest players I have ever seen on the court. She promises to be the best of the bunch."

The London Daily Graphic, which has been running a series of movie strips showing how the wonder girl brings off her various shots, refers to her as the "greatest ground-stroke exponent in the world," and doesn't bother to exclude men from the competition.

The Tally's In From Davis Cup Play

Final figures on what contending countries received from last winter's Davis Cup play in Australia are at hand, and it is not difficult to see why the boys down under sometimes feel they are having their pockets picked. Broken down into dollars for convenience, they follow:

Net profit from the Sweden-United States inter-zone final and the U.S.-Australia challenge round—$105,324.80; U.S. share after payment of taxes—$32,480; Australia's share — $21,887.04; Sweden's share—$7,840.

A friend in Melbourne writes that Ausie tennis officials seem to feel there is something wrong with these figures. They did all the work and wound up with less money than the Americans. He explains, however, that the Australian Tennis Association had to pay a whopping "company" tax which the visitors were spared.

Dodgers Lead Race With Sunday's Win

Rookie Pitchers Stop Cubs

By The Canadian Press

NEW YORK — Brooklyn Dodgers vaulted into the driver's seat in the National League pennant race Sunday, beating Chicago 3-2 while St. Louis Cardinals upset the erstwhile leaders, New York Giants, in both ends of a doubleheader, 8-7 and 8-2.

Rookies Ben Wade and Joe Black stopped the Cubs on five hits to enable Brooks to steam one game out in front. Dodgers scored all of their runs in the second inning.

Gil Hodges drove home two with his seventh homer and Carl Furillo scored the winning run when Johnny Klipstein walked Pee Wee Reese with the bases loaded.

Wade blanked the Cubs until the eighth inning on one hit when he lost his stuff. Singles by Dee Fondy, Hal Jeffcoat and player-manager Phil Cavarretta's pinch-hit triple chased Wade in favor of Black.

Black fanned Ed Miksis to retire the side and struck out Toby Atwell and Fondy in the ninth to end the game.

In the American League, Boston Red Sox pulled to within one game of front-running Cleveland Indians as Ellis Kinder gained credit for the 3-1 victory over Chicago. The triumph was Kinder's 18th straight over the White Sox.
