Maloney shoots back into limelight

Bathgate increases NHL points lead

By The Canadian Press

Phil Maloney is too old now ever to be the National Hockey League star it once seemed he might be. But he still has his moments of glory.

Wednesday night was one of them. Maloney, brought up last month by Chicago Black Hawks as a fill-in forward, played one of his infrequent games and scores twice to lead Hawks to a 4-3 win over New York Rangers.

Wednesday night was his 13th game this season, and for him it was a lucky one—his first two NHL goals since 1953.

At the other end of the hockey scale Andy Bathgate got one of New York's goals to move into a tie with Montreal Canadiens' Dickie Moore for the league goal-scoring lead and take a two-point lead in the points-race. Bathgate has 30 goals and 36 assists for 66 points.

Chicago's victory put the second-place Hawks 12 points behind the league-leading Canadiens and three points ahead of Boston Bruins. New York has lost six games in a row and is in fourth place with 52 points, four more than Detroit Red Wings. Toronto Maple Leafs are in the cellar with 47 points, one behind Detroit.

Malong got the show on the road Wednesday night, scoring at 4:41 of the first period. Chicago's Earl Balfour, whose night's production was a goal and two assists, scored unaided at 13:34.

New York took over the second period and tied things up on goals by Bathgate and Dean Prentice.

Maloney fired the winner at 6:04 of the third. Tod Sloan added an insurance marker at 13:42.

Pierre Pilote and Bathgate started swinging in the final period, and both received five-minute penalties.

Tonight Montreal Canadiens are at home to Detroit.

Pony League reprieved, Port Edward crew joins

There will be a Prince Rupert Pony League in 1959, the group decided last night at its first meeting of the season.

Derek Mullins was elected president by acclamation while his wife Bernice was put in as Secretary-treasurer.

William (Sparky) Smith, who has been around Prince Rupert baseball circles for several years, was elected vice-president.

The league, which will start in May, is to have four teams enter including a team from Port Edward. Arthur Borle said sponsors may be obtained for the Port Edward crew and arrangements for the use of a field are in progress.

Bill Smith, second baseman for Gordon and Anderson of the senior league, told the meeting he will be sponsoring a clinic to teach the Pony Leaguers various aspects of ball.

Mr. Smith said the clinic will be held in the civic centre and the date will be announced later.

The clinic should provide training until the season starts.

Mr. Smith attended the Vancouver Mountie baseball clinic in Vancouver last year.

Vice-president Smith moved that the age limit be changed from 13 to 16 to 13-17 and added that all boys who turn up at games in a uniform will play at least two innings. His motion was backed unanimously.

Mr. Smith also suggested that the executive call on the senior league for umpires.

The league also decided to have season tickets printed to include all league games.

Irwin Garfield of the Empress Hotel expressed his wish to sponsor an all-star team for exhibition games with Ketchikan and Terrace.

It was left to the executive to look into the possibility of outside games.

Game dinner Saturday to be popular affair

The Prince Rupert Rod and Gun Club will hold its popular annual game dinner and dance, for members and guests, at the navy drill hall Saturday, Jim Williams, banquet chairman announced today.

The enjoyable affair was attended by some 220 people last year when the menu included everything from shrimp to moose steaks.

Mr. Williams said the menu will be easily equalled this year and will consist of beef, moose, shrimp, a 75-pound spring salmon and will be topped off with apple pie and sherry sauce.

The banquet, considered the best of the year, will start at 6:30 with dancing at 10 p.m. and more "eats" at midnight, Mr. Williams said.

The club's annual trap shoot will be held at the Rod and Gun club the following day.

Competing in the shoot will be club's from Prince Rupert, Ketchikan, Terrace, Smithers, Kitimat, and Queen Charlotte Islands.

At stake will be the Banquet trophy and winners of the high singles, doubles, and handicap will also receive awards. Present holder of the Banquet trophy is the Ketchikan club.

Guest speaker will be E. T. Applewhaite; and Mayor P. J. Lester will be in attendance.

Mr. Williams said that all who attended last year were more than pleased with the affair.

Tickets may be obtained at the Co-op Centre, Rupert Radio and Electric or Fashion Footwear.
