Third Avenue West thriving main street

LOWER PART of Third Avenue West, facing east toward intersection of Third Avenue and McBride Street is being built up. Sign of modern Co-op Centre is seen at left. Intersection of Third Avenue and McBride Street is so busy at noon time that left hand turns from McBride onto Third Avenue have been prohibited.

Caravan on time

KAMLOOPS (CP)—Caravan 97 arrived here on schedule late Wednesday, with 57 decorated cars from Washington, Oregon and B.C.

Another nine cars were to join the procession today when it sets out for Dawson Creek. A smorgasbord dinner and entertainment Wednesday night, and an outdoor breakfast today were on the schedule here.
