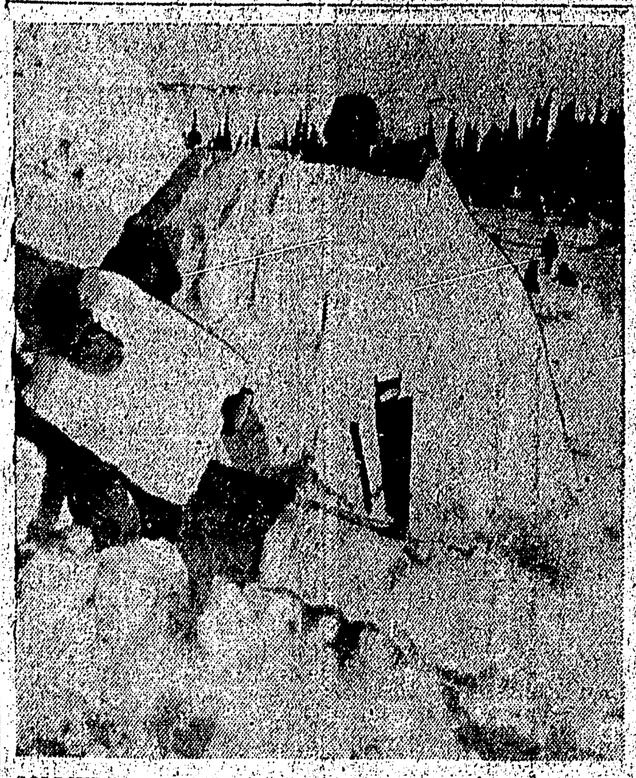
FORWARDS RELEASED

QUEBEC (CP) Forwards Bert Gleesebrecht and Frank O'Grady have been released by Quebec Aces of the Quebec Hockey League.

Team officials said Gleesebrecht has been sent to Vancouver Canucks of the Western Hockey League and O'Grady to Providence Reds of the American Hockey League. Both players belong to the Detroit Red Wings' farm system.



SOLDIERS TRAINING in Canada's northland learn to build their own homes from the north's most plentiful material — snow. This is the sort of thing personnel will be up against next month during Exercise Bulldog Two, a combined army-air force scheme near Fort Churchill, Man.

Parrot Ousted From Contest

BARCELONA, Spain (AP) — A parrot was kicked out of the national championship for talking birds Monday for dirty language.

The disgraced bird, one of the first entries for the competition to be held here soon, speaks seven languages but the admission committee said he used expressions too obscene for contest.

Another parrot sang Britain's national anthem with a Spanish accent. He was admitted. A third, owned by a Biscay sailor, gave an exhibition of difficult Basque tongue and was promptly accepted.
