Widow to Use Winnings To Educate Daughter

VANCOUVER (AP) — Mrs. Helen Orsolets, 43-year-old widow, said here over the weekend she will use the $140,000 she won in the Irish sweepstake to educate her seven-year-old daughter and visit her sick mother in Vienna.

Mrs. Orsolets was given a ticket in the sweepstakes run in conjunction with the Grand National steeplechase at Aintree, England, by a friend, John Bubish. The ticket, in the nom de plume of "Orsolets", was drawn against the National winner E.S.B.

Mrs. Orsolets is employed at the Hudson's Bay Co. here as a dishwasher in the staff restaurant.

"I'll go back to work after I've been to my mother," she said. "I like my job."

Her husband died of a heart attack when they were living at Prince George, in 1953.

Mrs. Orsolets had to be persuaded by other staff members to take the day off and go home to her daughter, also called Helen.

She left home shortly before 3 a.m. soon after the race finished, but she had no idea she'd won the prize.

"I wouldn't listen to the radio. I've been too excited."

KIDNEY ACIDS Rob your Rest..

Many people never seem to get a good night's rest. They turn and toss—blame it on 'nerves'—when it may be their kidneys. Healthy kidneys filter poisons and excess acids from the blood. If they fail and impurities stay in the system—disturbed rest often follows. If you don't rest well get and use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's help the kidneys so that you can rest better—and feel better. 136
