CHICAGO BLACK HAWKS' agile netminder Glen Hall comes far out of his net to kick aside a shot by Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion of Montreal, but was beaten by five other shots Saturday night as Montreal toppled Hawks 5-2 to win the semi-final series 4-2 in games. —CP photo.

BOSTON SQUARES SERIES

Hawks' Stanley Cup hope shattered by Montreal

CHICAGO (CP)—Chicago Black Hawks' glittering Stanley Cup dream was shattered Saturday night by Montreal Canadiens on a goal by Claude Provost that touched off a roaring demonstration.

The goal came at 18:32 of the last period, the last in a spectacular, seesaw struggle that gave Canadiens a 5-4 victory and a 4-2 win on games on the best-of-seven cup semi-final.

Provost's goal was his second of the night. Dickie Moore also counted two for Montreal and Doug Harvey scored once.

Eddie Litzenberger and veteran Ted Lindsay each scored two goals and Ted Sloan assisted on all four for the Hawks.

After Provost's game-winner it was nearly 20 minutes before the remaining minutes and 28 seconds could be played out.

Disgruntled over what they felt was referee Red Storey's failure to call a penalty against Montreal just before Provost's big goal, the crowd broke into an uproar.

Programs and newspapers were showered to the ice. Then other objects and missiles of all kinds—bottles, cans, chairs, depth [illegible] were showered down. The game resumed [illegible] Montreal defenceman Doug Harvey and was reported to have required 15 stitches in a head [illegible]

Nevertheless, both Pilous and Hawk President Jim Norris went to the Montreal dressingroom to congratulate Blake and his team. "We did the best we could and that wasn't enough," Norris told Blake.

Storey called 21 penalties in all, 12 against Montreal.

Penalties and all, the game was a thriller from start to finish.

The other semi-final was set today for a dramatic one-game struggle between Boston's durable Bruins and Toronto Maple Leafs, a young team that has the knack of scoring upsets. Bruins are favored to win it.

Boston barged into the favorite's role Saturday night by surviving an almost-crippling outbreak of injuries and a stirring Leaf comeback to defeat Leafs 5-4 and deadlock the best-of-seven series at three games apiece. The seventh engagement will be in Boston Tuesday night.

"We showed we can come back," said Boston coach Milt Schmidt. "Now we have the advantage of home ice. I don't think they'll catch us as they did the last time." Leafs whipped the Bruins 4-1 in Boston last Thursday.

Just as confident is Leafs coach Punch Imlach, the eternal optimist.

"We've chartered a plane to land us in Boston after tomorrow's game," he said. "We expect to be going to Montreal to meet Canadiens in the final series." The Habs edged Chicago Black Hawks 5-4 Saturday to capture their best-of-seven series 4-2.

Bruins twice had a two-goal edge Saturday. Twice they lost it. But they scored the winning goal at 12:56 of the third period when Vic Stasiuk's 40-foot blue [illegible] past goaltender Johnny Bower off centre Brandon Hartland's knee.

"We've come out of their [illegible] and that could be a very good sign," Schmidt said. The Leafs are Bruins' top scoring [illegible] of Horvath, Stasiuk and Johnny Boyda.

Rookie scored twice while right winger Jerry Toppazzini and rookie Don McKenney accounted for the other Boston goals.

Left winger Frank Mahovlich scored twice for Toronto. Left winger Bert Olmstead and centre Gerry Ehman with his fifth of the series, scored singles.

Calgary, Seattle win in WHL playoff games

[illegible] behind Seattle all season, Sunday night [illegible] Vancouver Canucks threw [illegible] Western Hockey League [illegible] the score on a four-man [illegible] with Lee Libey getting the [illegible] Seattle pressed the attack [illegible] Vancouver was a man [illegible] Canucks staged a sortie [illegible] paid off as Don Howell out-[illegible] Bentley and sunk the visitors' last goal of the game.

Both Bonneau and Gerry Leonard missed excellent chances in the third period when for six minutes Vancouver was short-handed. Totems, waited until both teams were at full strength before assigning Ooyer to score the winner.

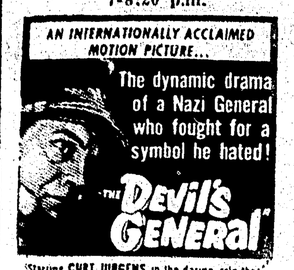
The game Saturday in Calgary was won by Stampeders because, as coach Gus Kyle put it, "14 hard-working guys played their hearts out."

Weekend fights

Palm Springs, Calif. (AP)—Cisco Andrade, 125¾, Compton, Calif., outpointed Jay Fullmer, 136, West Jordan, Utah, 10.

Hollywood, Calif. (AP)— Dwight Hawkins, 117½, Los Angeles, outpointed Harman Marques, 117½, Stockton, Calif. 10.

CAPITOL
TODAY to WED.
7-8:20 p.m.



Starring CURT JURGENS in the daring role that won Best Actor of the Year Award—Venice Film Festival and MARIANNE COOK

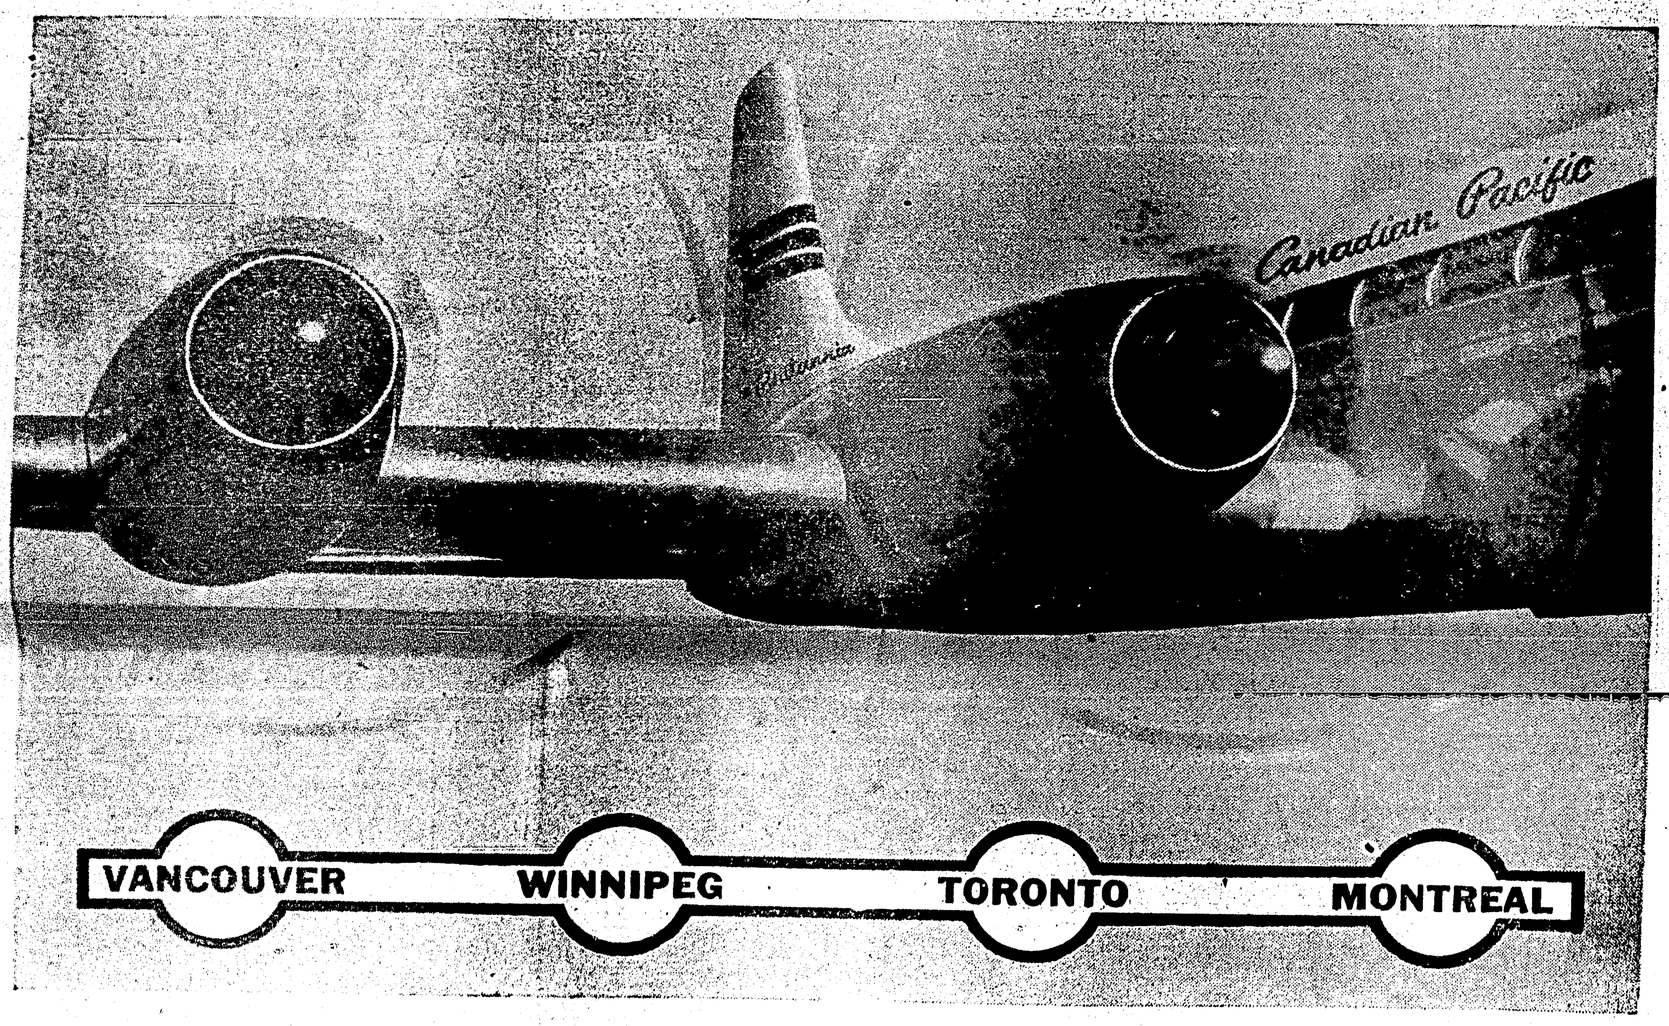
ANTHONY QUINN as Attila the Hun!
SOPHIA LOREN who brought the Hun to his knees!
JOSEPH E. LEVINE presents
"Attila"
A cast of thundering thousands in!
TECHNICOLOR

Advertising in The Daily News Brings Results

TOTEM
TODAY and TUESDAY
7 p.m.
9 p.m.

THEY WERE PEOPLE OF THE EARTH...
Lusty, violent, primitive!
Today
M-G-M PRESENTS
PIER ANGELI · MEL FERRER
JOHN KERR · MICHELE MORGAN
THE VINTAGE
METROcolor CINEMASCOPE
—ALSO—
CARTOON-COMEDY

May 4th. Canadian Pacific presents daily jet-prop Britannias across Canada



LARGEST, FASTEST, FINEST AIRLINERS IN CANADA

CPA BRITANNIAS...LARGEST-90 tons, 95 passengers
CPA BRITANNIAS...FASTEST-400-plus miles per hour
CPA BRITANNIAS...FINEST-International Cuisine in both Tourist and First Class

New "Canadian Empress" flights bring you jet-age travel aboard completely radar-equipped jet-prop Britannias. This new cross-Canada route connects CPA's vast international air network, already serving the Orient, South Pacific, Mexico and South America, and Europe. For further information call your travel agent or any Canadian Pacific Office.

Wherever you want to go – however you wish to travel – go Canadian Pacific . . . by land, by sea, by air, an integrated travel system serving five continents.

Canadian Pacific AIRLINES

wings of the world's greatest travel system