IN MEMORIAM

SLEY—In loving memory of our dear son, Donald Clifford Stanley, who passed away Feb. 4 1950.

Somewhere back of the sunset
There loneliness never dies,
We sleep in a kind of glory,
With the blue and the gold of the skies.
For those who have known and loved him,
Those passing has brought sad tears,
We'll cherish his memory always
To brighten the passing years."
Sadly missed by Mother, Dad, Sisters and Sisters. (1tp)

Men to Blame

TORONTO (CP) — Most Canadian women want to look 10 years younger, and men are to blame.

This is the opinion of Dr. Clarence Hincks, director of the Canadian Mental Health Association. Dr. Hincks, who has spent 45 years studying mental health of Canadians, told a meeting here that Canadians must learn to be their age and like it, and to change the attitude toward old age, if mental health standards are to improve, he said.

School Curling

EDMONTON (CP) — Four school boys' curling rinks meet here Saturday to decide who will represent Alberta in the Canadian high school boys' curling championships at Sydney, N.S., February 21-25.

The rinks, one each from Red Deer, Edmonton, Yellowknife, N.W.T., and Fort St. John, B.C., will play a three-game round-robin tournament. In the case of a draw an extra game will be played.

Women Curlers

EDINBURGH — Eight Canadian and eight American lady curlers, now on a month's tour of Scotland, arrived in Edinburgh last week from Ayr. They were full of enthusiasm for the welcome they have received since they arrived at Prestwick. They have been busy visiting lace, carpet and curling stone factories and distilleries.

TRAINING COURSE

SAINT JOHN, N.B. (CP)— Stationary engineers in New Brunswick have petitioned the provincial government to sponsor a training school for such engineers, as well as for firemen and apprentices in these trades.

FREDERICTON (CP)—Last year was an exceptionally good one for New Brunswick so far as labor - management relations were concerned, Labor Minister A. E. Skaling reported. The province had only one strike during 1954.
