City band, magician provide gala party for youngsters

A concert of Christmas music by the Prince Rupert Civic Band, a show by "Chanin the Magician", the arrival of Santa Claus and Christmas trimmings, provided a gay party for more than 80 children in the Elks lodge Sunday afternoon.

Staged by the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks and Order of The Royal Purple, the gleeful youngsters sang Christmas songs, played games and enthusiastically applauded the entertainers.

Assisting Santa with the distribution of gifts and treats were OORP members Mrs. Robert Menzies, Mrs. P. K. Deane, Mrs. Robert Currie, Mrs. R. J. Elliott, Mrs. Rupert Lundrigan and Mrs. James Flaten.

Christmastime wedding solemnized at United

Flickering candlelight enhanced the foliage of Christmas flowers and glistening ornaments which formed the background for the wedding in First United church Saturday evening when Jacqueline Ann Moorehead became the bride of Keith Oliver Philippson.

Rev. Dr. R. W. K. Elliott officiated at the double-ring ceremony for the duaghter of Mrs. Jean Moorehead and the late J. W. Morehead of this city and the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Philippson of Burnaby.

James Moorehead gave his sister in marriage, who was a bridal portrait in white appliqued lace-over-net and satin.

Fashioned in cocktail-length the bride's bouffant skirt fell from a fitted bodice nipped to shape a V waistline and framed with a scalloped neckline.

Her finger-tip veil was secured with a tiara of seeded pearls and she carried a bouquet of rosebuds. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the groom and she wore her mother's pearl ear-rings, gift of her father.

The attendants were gowned in shades of orchid and yellow in identical style. Mrs. Carl Olafson, as matron-of-honor and sister of the bride, Miss Joanne Moorehead as bridesmaid carried contrasting bouqets of carnations to match their nylon-over-net cocktail-length gowns and bandeaux. Nylon stoles covered the tiny strapped bodices.

Petite flower girl Ruby Leask was frocked in white organdy and carried a basket of rosebuds. Ring-bearer was James Truscott.

Carl Olafson was best man and ushers were John Reid and Daniel Neufield.

Organist Mrs. Gordon Nicolls accompanied Mrs. John Clee who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "With This Ring."

Under an arch of streamers and wedding bells the bride's mother received at the reception in the Sons of Norway hall wearing a blue lace-over-satin en tone, accented with white accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

On behalf of the groom's mother, his aunt received in a gown of rose lace-over-satin. Her white carnation corsage matched her accessories.

Emcee John Rosedale proposed the toast to the bride and read telegrams received from Kelowna, Chemainus and Chilliwack.

A three-tiered cake topped with miniature bells and flanked by tiny rosebuds, formed the focal point on the bride's table. Servers were Misses Barbara Marineau, Betty Johnson, Myrtle Wing, Charlotte Wing, Loretta Vaccher and Alice Kristmanson.

FRANCOIS LAKE— Christmas preparations in the district are in full swing, with Yuletide greetings everywhere.

Friday evening the Tchesinkut Lake children held their Christmas concert and put on a delightful program. Our little church was lovely on Sunday for the Christmas service with potted plants and fresh flowers on the altar.

We wish our Editor and Staff of the Daily News and our many friends in Prince Rupert a very happy Christmas and New Year.
