SUCCESSFUL FUNCTION REALIZES $ 300

Many attend Christmas bazaar at Conrad school despite storm

Despite Friday night's storm more than 200 adults and children gathered in the Conrad Street school to attend the successful bazaar staged by the school's Parent-Teacher association.

Almost $300 was realized at the pre-Christmas annual function, which was a scene of gaiety and cheerful activity in a setting of green and red streamers and multi-colored balloons.

Convening the home-baking table were Mrs. R. A. McLean, Mrs. Alex Slater and Mrs. William Bisset.

Mrs. John Micholuk handled the atractive sewing booth.

Doll walks were handled by Miss Norma Irving, Mrs. C. F. Bartlett and T. G. Bateman. Mrs. Murray Rose was pianist.

Handing the cake walks were Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Marshall with Mrs. Constance Weise as pianist.

Mrs. Richard Cameron and Mrs. Ronald Small convened the plant and white elephant stall.

Selling hot-dogs was Mrs. E. F. Tubb.

The comic counter was attended by Mr. and Mrs. George Ferguson.

Mrs. Peter Brass attended the fish pond.

A counter of rummage was handled by Mrs. Karl Lundstrom, Mrs. Frank Morowski and Mrs. John Hurst.

Soft-drinks were sold by Ronald Small.

The popular movie showings were in charge of Wilfred Garbutt and Arthur Jantzen.

Directing the kitchen were Mrs. M. S. Helgason, Mrs. V. A. Korhonen and Mrs. J. Rurka.

Tea tables were attended by Mrs. A. J. Bussanich and Mrs. A. F. Martin.

The bean guessing contest, won by Henry Reid, was attended by Mrs. E. G. Enwright. The prize was a grocery hamper.

Cashier was PTA president Mrs. J. F. Denning.

General conveners for the enjoyable carnival affair were Mrs. E. G. Enwright and Mrs. A. F. Martin.

Mr. & Mrs. Martin Berg feted at house-warming party

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Berg were the surprised recipients of a group house-warming gift Saturday night when 50 members of their families and friends gathered at their new home on 1845 Atlin Avenue to wish them "future happiness."

Joint-hostesses for the delightful surprise house-warming party were Mrs. Christopher Berg and Mrs. Hans Melby.

On behalf of the many guests assembled, master of ceremonies Bernhof Pedersen presented Mr. and Mrs. Berg with a table lamp.

Entertainment included community singing of Scandinavian folk songs, led by Mr. Pedersen.

Hostesses served refreshments to conclude the party-fare.
