Former city residents enjoy annual "Rupert Night" get-together.

Among the 300 former city residents and friends who attended the third annual dinner dance of the Prince Rupert Society in Vancouver were (l. to r.): Barney Phillipson, a resident of the city from 1912 to 1946; Mrs. Clem Phillipson and her husband, a nephew of Barney Phillipson; and former mayor Harry Daggett, pictured top right. Three well-known former residents of the city standing at left, were Mr. and Mrs. Will Sheardown (left) and Mrs. Ellen Taylor, wife of the late Inspector Taylor who formerly headed the RCMP force here. Local 708 of the International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers was well represented by former members at the annual get-together. Among thes many attending were S. J. Donmiato (left) and Mrs. Dominato, and Pat O'Neal with Mrs. O'Neal pictured left bottom. Mr. O'Neal was recently named secretary of the B.C. Federation of Labor.
