Knox Pass-Ability Fails To Impress Ottawa Club

HAMILTON (CP)—Coach Frank Clair of Ottawa Rough Riders has shown once again he is a builder of dangerous football teams and Ronnie Knox has proved you can be a bit of a goat and a glamor boy at the same time.

The Rough Riders, who finished a pitiful last in 1954 and 1955 in the Big Four football unit came from behind Wednesday night to defeat Hamilton Tiger-Cats 29-21 in a thrilling game that opened the 1956 season before an estimated turnout of 19,500 fans.

It had been suspected that Clair, who produced two Grey Cup winners in five years with Toronto Argonauts, then coached at a U. S. college last year before coming to Ottawa this season, would unveil a sleeper. Not many—if any—will disagree that he did.

Riders, although fumbling eight times, were quick to jump on Hamilton bobbles and treated the much-publicized passing ability of Knox with near-contempt to take the victory, their first here in five years.

In defeat, Knox, a 21-year-old quarterback from the University of California at Los Angeles was accepted by the fans as a long lost son. In the two quarters in which he played Ronnie indicated he may be worth every cent of the $14,000 Hamilton is paying him for the season.

The customers loved him even after he threw away the ball in attempting to lateral in the fourth quarter, a mistake that led to an Ottawa touchdown and gave Riders a 22-21 lead.

The young quarter completed seven of 13 pass attempts and ran the ball with dazzling skill. In eight plays he fired one touchdown pass and master-minded a 65-yard touchdown drive.

Halfback Don Pinney was the scoring star with two touchdowns for Riders. End Lew Bruce up from Queen's University Golden Gaels, and import half Tom Lewis scored a touchdown apiece. Halfback Tom Tracy converted all of them. Avatus Stone scored a single off a 55-yard kick.

Pinney took a pass from Chuck Harding, who shared the Ottawa quarterback duties with Hal Ledyard, in the second quarter and scampered 27 yards for his second score in the fourth. Ledyard threw a touchdown strike to Bruce in the third quarter, and Lewis went over from the Hamilton five-yard line in the fourth for Ottawa's other major.

Nobby Wirkowski, Hamilton's regular quarter last season played the first half and threw a touchdown pass to halfback Ron Howell in the second quarter. Knox heaved one 22 yards to Don Luft in the fourth. Zollie Toth accounted for the other touchdown, crashing over from the one-yard line on a handoff from Knox in the third quarter. Steven Oneschuk booted three converts.
