Year-End Rally Appears On Canadian Markets

By RON ANDREWS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

The traditional year-end rally appeared on the Canadian stock markets during the final hours of trading this week.

In an abbreviated week—there were only three trading sessions because of a four-day Christmas holiday—western oils and refining oils and pipelines sparked the rise which pushed the major indices to their best gains in several weeks.

Trans Mountain Pipe Line was the individual issue which seemed to touch off a heavy buying spell in the oil stocks late Thursday. Trans Mountain climbed $8 in the session and added another $1.50 Friday to close the week with a gain of $11.50 at $114.50.

Observers couldn't pinpoint the reason for the sudden interest in oils, except for the fact that leading authorities in the industry were predicting that 1957 would see Canada forge ahead in world trade.

VOLUMES HEAVY

Wednesday and Thursday featured quiet trading, although the volumes were heavier than in recent sessions.

The same pattern existed for most of Friday's session.

Trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange was heavier than it had been in several weeks.

Index changes at Toronto: Industrials up 1.57 to 462.90; golds up .58 to 76.95; base metals up 3.25 to 225.72; western oils up 4.74 to 151.98.

Index changes at Montreal: Banks up 0.31 to 53.16; utilities off 0.1 to 135.6; industrials up 1.7 to 293.4; combined up 1.1 to 240.8; papers off 0.80 to 1419.98; golds off 0.51 to 73.83.

Week's volumes at Montreal: 139,340 industrials and 1,799,948 mines compared with 281,196 industrials and 2,309,153 mines the previous week. Of 290 issues traded, 96 advanced, 94 declined and 100 were unchanged.

Safer Colors

BRANDON, Man. (CP) — The hunter of tomorrow will wear either an orange or yellow jacket, says the Manitoba federation of fish and game associations. The present favorites, red and white, offer nothing in the way of protection against color-blind hunters, it says.

Emperor Helped Write Denunciation

TOKYO (AP) — Emperor Hirohito himself helped draft the imperial rescript which 10 years ago renounced his "divinity," a Japanese weekly magazine says.

The hitherto unknown story is told by one of Japan's outstanding educationists, 72-year-old Tamon Naeda, in Shukan Tokyo, a weekly published by the newspaper Tokyo Shimbun.

The emperor on Jan. 1, 1946 disclaimed "divinity" and debunked "the mythologically divine existence of the imperial house of Japan." The imperial renunciation—often called Emperor Hirohito's "human declaration" put an end to the legend which provided a foundation for Japanese militarism and ultra-nationalism.

Japan's new constitution was dictated by Gen. Douglas Macarthur, the supreme commander. Maeda says Emperor Hirohito's declaration was Japanese-inspired.

The decision was made, he says, because in the months after surrender everything was chaos. The people were confused.

"The people thought the emperor was divine and believed the myth that no nation could defeat the land he ruled," Maeda recounts.

Latin America Tourist Goal

WASHINGTON (AP)— A travel rush to Latin America is in full swing this winter.

The season is "terrific" for many of the sunny lands to the south, a spot check of travel officials, hotel agencies and airlines reveals.

Some airline flights are reported booked to capacity, with stand-by lists as long as the passenger lists. Hotel reservations in many areas are musts.

The travel officials say the reasons behind the boom are:

● Disturbed conditions in the Middle East and Europe, which have caused the cancellation of some tours there.

● The "psychological" factor involved in the elimination of the 10 per cent travel tax to the Caribbean and Central America.

● Much greater promotion work on the part of some of the countries which have been anxious to attract tourists.

● A continuation of the steady curve upward in travel to the Caribbean and Latin America.
