English Halfback Offered Job In Calgary Hotel

LONDON (CP)—Bert Mozley, 31-year-old soccer player for England and Derby County, today said he plans to emigrate to Canada next January.

Mozley, three times at right back for England, has been offered a job managing a Calgary hotel. He has a tentative sea booking for Jan. 8, 1955.

Directors of Derby County will meet Thursday to consider Mozley's case. Derby County, relegated to second-division status after the 1952-53 season, cannot force him to stay in Britain. On the other hand, Mazley won't be able to play soccer in Canada without the club's consent.

Mozley, once captain of Derby, would have been 10 years with the club next May. He was dropped from the England side after an injury.

He toured Canada with the England team in 1950.
