CYCLISTS BREAK RECORDS

TORONTO (CP)—Four Canadian cycling records were broken Monday night by two Toronto cyclists at a club meet at the Canadian National Exhibition track.

Roy Williamson of Queen City Cycle Club topped the five-mile and 25-mile marks and the hour record. He clocked five miles in 11 minutes and 49 seconds, 25 miles in one hour and 20 minutes and covered 24 miles, 1,484 yards in the hour.

EIGHT GIRLS shown on this page and three on front page will parade before audience and judges at Navy Drill Hall tomorrow night to determine winner of Port Day Queen contest. Judging will be done for charm and personality, on the basis of 33.3 per cent 33.3 per cent for beauty of face and figure, and 33.3 per cent for ability to speak and special talents. Contestants were introduced to judges last night at an informal dinner in the Broadway Cafe. Tomorrow night, the girls will appear once in shorts and T-shirts and once in formal dresses before the judges decide on the winner.

Moscow has four main symphony orchestras, and concert halls and theatres are open seven days a week.
