NATIONAL LEAGUE ROUNDUP

Stan needs seven more hits to qualify for "3,000 club"

By The Associated Press

Stan (The Man) Musial's magic number is seven.

Seven hits and he becomes the eighth major leaguer to total 3,000. And the way he's flying at the moment, batting a cool .529, he should join Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, Honus Wagner, Eddie Collins, Nap Lajoie, Paul Wagner and Cap Anson either Saturday or Sunday while swinging against the Chicago Cubs.

The only question at the moment, is what in the world will the St. Louis Cardinals do when Musial slumps?

LOSE SEVEN STRAIGHT

They lost their seventh straight, sinking 8½ games behind in the National League basement with a 9-2 licking from the Milwaukee Braves on Wednesday night. And Musial, who has hit in all 17 of the Cards' games this season in a run for his eighth batting crown, drove in both runs and collected three of their five hits off world series hero Lew Burdette.

By winning their fourth in a row, the Braves stayed a half game behind Chicago's ambitious Cubs, who retained first place with a 5-1 victory over Cincinnati. San Francisco moved past Pittsburgh into third by beating the Pirates 8-6. Philadelphia belted Los Angeles 9-3.

Red Schoendienst had four singles in five trips for the Braves. Henry Aaron drove in three runs and Wes Covington cracked his second homer, with a man on, as Burdette won his third. Lew also had three singles and drove in a run in the Braves' 16-hit fling.

THREE IN A ROW

Lefty Taylor Phillips won his first for the Cubs with a five-hitter. He gave up the Redleg run in the first on Pete Whisenant's triple and a wild pitch. Brooks Lawrence was the loser.

Bob Friend lost his first in five decisions for the Pirates, giving way in a four-run fourth capped by rookie Bob Schmidt's three-run homer. Al Worthington won his second in relief of Curt Barclay, who gave up successive homers to Bob Skinner, Ted Kluszewski and Frank Thomas in the fifth, tying an oftentied major league record.

Curt Simmons became the first southpaw to beat Los Angeles htis season. Carl Furillo homered the Dodger runs across in the third. Stan Lopata's solo homer tied it in the sixth and the Phils then whipped Fred Kipp with three in the seventh.
