King Ed students set to enter junior high

Some 84 Grade 6 students of King Edward Elementary school will enter Booth Memorial Junior High School when it reopens in September.

The happy and excited Grade 6 group were presented with certificates of promotion at an impressive commencement ceremony held Tuesday in King Edward school auditorium.

Presenting the certificates were King Edward School Principal R. G. Moore and Vice-principal I. H. Currie.

Guest speakers were; J. M. Phillipson, district superintendent of schools; Mrs. A. L. Bell, representing the board of school trustees; Frederick Dunford, newly appointed principal of Booth Memorial Junior High school.

Grade 6 pupil, Joan Sinclair, gave the valedictory address.

The Ormes trophy for the winning house of the school's Sports day was presented to James Green of Gold House.

The Strathcona Trust shield, for proficiency in physical education was presented to Mr. Currie by Mr. Phillipson.

The shield is awarded to a school in the whole of district 52 that attains the highest mark in physical education. Last year the Masset school won it.

After receiving the trophy on behalf of the school, Mr. Currie presented it to Thomas Toye, captain of Black house.

About 150 parents attended the affair.

Roosevelt Park School holds graduation day

On Wednesday afternoon Roosevelt Park School held their graduation exercises with a large number of parents and friends of the graduating class in attendance.

Guests on the platform who in turn performed their official duties were J. M. Phillipson, district superintendent of schools. J. Burdikin—vice principal of Roosevelt Park School and Douglas Frizzell of Vancouver who flew here to present the Miss Mills Memorial Award.

Peter Homenuk was the valedictorian for the graduating class, with the reply being given by grade five student Joe Scuby.

Two new awards were created this year. The awards will be presented at the end of each term to a girl and a boy for athletic ability and sportsmanship. Charlotte Calbreath and Terry Lum were the recipients at this initial presentation.

The house award presented for good citizenship, sportsmanship and scholastic ability was awarded to Mills House with 1,099 points—Wilson House had 1,040 points. Ernie Baines the Mills House president accepted the award on behalf of his house.

The Miss Mills Memorial Award presented by Mr. Frizzell was awarded to Susan Harding and Alison Newton.

Mrs. J. A. Rutherford receives many gifts at retirement party

By CHRISTIE HARRIS

"If I had my time to live over again," Mrs. J. A. Rutherford told three hundred friends who had gathered to honor her on Wednesday evening at Roosevelt Park School, "I'd still be a teacher. The challenge is so wonderful!"

Retiring from the teaching profession after service that has encompassed forty years, Mrs. Rutherford was the surprised recipient of many warm tributes and gifts at a reception arranged for her by colleagues and X-pupils headed by J. H. Steele, W. F. Bond, Mrs. H. S. Cobb, Mrs. D. H. Payne, Mrs. J. J. Donaldson, I. L. Morse, Mrs. W. Homenuk, Mrs. W. Hitchcock, Mrs. J. E. Bateman, Miss Julie Prockter, and Mrs. K. Adrian.

The guest of honor was welcomed into the prettily decorated auditorium by chairman R. W. Long, who had been a member of her first Grade two class at Borden Street school and whose son is a member of her last grade two class. She was presented with a sheaf of red roses by this year's grade two representative Christine Sutherland.

Opening the programme on an infectiously happy note, a tape recording of Mrs. Rutherford's original rhythm band composition cued in a gaily costumed band of former students who circled the room before leading the assembly in the singing of "School Days," and "The More We Are Together."

In a tribute to the retiring member of his staff, Roosevelt Park School principal John H. Steele thanked Mrs. Rutherford for her wisdom, her integrity, her youthfulness, and "for showing to present and past staffs and principals what a fine and noble thing it is to be a teacher."

Mrs. A. L. Bell expressed the School Board's appreciation of twenty three years of excellent service and presented an engraved pen desk set.

From prsident Owen Erwin, Mrs. Rutherford received the Prince Rupert Teachers' Association's gift of gold filigree earrings and brooch, and from retiring president Mrs. J. E. Bateman, the Parent Teachers' Association's gift of a handbag.

President of the newly organized "Friends of Mrs. Rutherford Association" W. E. Bond, presented Mrs. Rutherford with a handsome combination radio and record player on behalf of the large group.

At a banquet earlier in the evening she received a gift of Belleek vases from the school staff.

Refreshments were served by committee members assisted by Mrs. L. Bowman, Mrs. A. Doane, Mrs. G. Cook, Mrs. P. J. Ratchford, Miss Ann Huestis, and Miss Marianne Donders.

After teaching eight years in her native England, Mrs. Rutherford began her Prince Rupert teaching career in 1927. She taught for one year at Westview School and 14 years at Borden Street School before her marriage to John Allan Rutherford. Four years later she became secretary for the School Board.

She taught again for four years in the forties, and resumed her profession when she was widowed in 1954.
