Playoff Spot Lions Goal At Weekend

By The Canadian Press

British Columbia Lions, undefeated in four straight games, face a rough test this weekend as they struggle to slip past Calgary Stampeders for third spot in the final standings of the Western Interprovincial Football Union regular schedule.

Edmonton Eskimos and Winnipeg Blue Bombers already have clinched spots in the three-team WIFU playoffs and the third berth is still open.

Lions, three points behind Calgary, are aiming at a victory in Vancouver Saturday night over the Eskimos, seeking their fourth consecutive national championship.

STAMPS SLIPPING

Stampeders, who have won only twice in their last nine starts, are at home Saturday night to Winnipeg.

The other weekend WIFU fixture has Saskatchewan Roughriders, already out of the playoffs, in Winnipeg Monday night.

Both British Columbia and Calgary have three games left and to qualify for the playoffs Lions must wipe out the present three-point margin enjoyed by Stampeders.

In the Big Four the leader has the best chance to help itself. Hamilton Tiger-Cats, two points ahead of Ottawa Rough Riders and Montreal Alouettes, are at home to the Als. Riders move into Toronto against the crippled Toronto Argonauts.

FINAL PLAYER LIST

The Big Four clubs will be playing out the last four regular season games with their final list of players for this season. The import deadline is midnight tonight and those last chops—involving four players on two teams—are expected to trickle in right to the last moment.

Robin Again Gopher King

NEW YORK (AP)—Robin Roberts of Philadelphia Phillies gave up 40 home runs in 1957 to pace the National League in gopher balls for the fourth straight season. But he relinquished the major league lead to Washington's Pedro Ramos, who set an American League record of 43.

Roberts, who broke the major league standard by allowing 46 homers in 1956, was touched for 10 each this year by Brooklyn and Chicago, six by Milwaukee, five by New York, four each by St. Louis and Cincinnati and only one by Pittsburgh.
