PARIS POLICE DRIVEN FROM OFFICE BY SNAKE

Strange Parcel Had Big Surprise for Paris Policemen—They Fled

Paris, Dec. 21.—Two huge serpents took complete possession of one of the Paris police stations for several hours. They had been brought to the station house in a woollen sack found in a subway car after the trains had ceased running shortly after midnight. The sack was thrown into a corner to await a claimant. Suddenly the policemen on duty noticed the sack moving slowly across the room toward the stove.

Several policemen rushed toward it and ripped it open with their sabres, when two great snakes of the boa constrictor species reared their heads and caused the policemen to evacuate in terror.

DIFFERENT FIRMS WILL BUILD SHIPS IN HASTE

Battleship Construction to Be Carried on by Several Firms.

London, Dec. 21.—On account of the rush of orders received by the admiralty for the construction of ships of war, the lowest tender system has had to be abandoned. All the British yards are working full shifts for the construction of seven battleships for Turkey, Japan, Australia, Chili and Brazil.

The admiralty itself is required to lay ten armored cruisers during the next year which should be completed by 1915.

On account of these many orders, and the fact that any tender has to be accepted, special arrangements are being made by the admiralty to spread the orders through the various ship building yards, and thus avoid an undue increase in the cost of construction.

JURY ACCUSES HUSBAND OF MURDERING SPOUSE

Love Claims His Fourteen Year Old Son is Trying to Hang Him

Flesherton, Ont., Dec. 21.—Coroner Bibby's jury, after investigating the death of Mrs. Hannah Love, whose body was found by her husband in the cellar of her home, after she had been missing for three days, returned the following verdict:

"That Mrs. Hannah Love was murdered on Monday evening, and that the evidence points strongly to Henry Love as the murderer."

The feature of the session was the dramatic accusation by Love against his son, Arnet, of conspiring with Provincial Inspector Reburn, of the criminal investigation department, to send him to the gallows. Although represented by Wm. H. Wright, Love requested that he be allowed to question his son as the latter concluded his evidence.

He asked the lad pointblank if he was not lying, and on being answered in the negative, Love then accused the witness of allowing the inspector to secure a false statement. The prisoner also declared that Inspector Reburn secured a fabricated confession from the boy, having gained his point by hypnotizing the boy, or by using other methods of coercion.
