15 Entries Scheduled For Big Swim

VICTORIA (AP) — At least 15 definite entries for the Aug. 4 mass swim of Juan de Fuca strait, have been received.

In addition Joan Biddle, daughter of Canon George Biddle of Victoria, has been named a probable entry.

Swim chairman George Colwill said last-minute entries included four competitors in this year's Atlantic City swim.

They are Jan Perle, Long Beach, Calif., Paul Herren, Oakland, Calif., Jason Greganos, New York, and Charles Grover, Roxbury, Mass.

Competitors will leave together from Beacon Hill Park here. The first one to reach Port Angeles, Wash., 18.3 miles away or,—if no one reaches the United States coastline—the one who swims the longest, will be the winner.

Atomic Rocket Launched

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP) —The first air-to-air atomic rocket fired from a plane burst over the desert Friday with a flash that paled the morning sun.

The air defence command's newest and most powerful weapon exploded at 7 a.m. PDT.

The vivid fireball flared in the target area at an altitude of more than 15,000 feet and sent up a pink doughnut-shaped cloud.

The nuclear rocket was launched from a Northrop F-89 Scorpion jet fighter.

MUSHROOM SHAPE

The cloud assumed somewhat the shape of the usual atomic mushroom, but the crown quickly separated from the filmy stem.

The burst was more than 13 miles from News Nob where observers were stationed.

The launching plane was the leader in a formation of three Scorpion jets. The rocket was the Genie, manufactured by Douglas Aircraft Co.

Power of the weapon was announced only as "well below nominal." A nominal bomb is rated as the energy equivalent of 20,000 tons of tnt.

Col. J. H. Atkinson, commander of the Air Defence Command, disclosed before the test that air-to-air rockets with atomic warheads already are in the inventory of this force. The weapons are designed to knock down invading bombers.

Bus Strike Hits Britons On Vacation

LONDON (Reuters) — Thousands of Britons cut short their vacations Friday and started the trek home a day early to beat a country-wide bus strike.

The strike, timed for midnight tonight, will stop most bus services outside the London area.

Municipal services in the bigger cities will not be affected but at least 100,000 bus workers with 74 private provincial transport companies intend to strike to back wage demands.

Lines formed at country railroad stations while vacation resorts issued appeals to private motorists to offer lifts to returning visitors.

The state-run British railroads, already operating a full summer schedule, announced it would not be able to run any extra trains while bus companies put every available vehicle on the road.

At Margate, a resort on Britain's south coast, the municipal council said if necessary it will run stranded visitors home in furniture trucks.

VACATION START

The worst-hit areas probably will be South Wales and industrial areas in northern England and Scotland where many firms are shutting down this weekend for annual two-week vacation.

If the strike goes past the weekend it will hit factories and schools in many areas.

Six unions involved are demanding pay increases of about £1 a week to reduce the gap between their rates and those in the London area. They have rejected as "insulting" an offer of another three shillings.

Labor Minister Iain Macleod has referred the deadlock to the industrial disputes tribunal, set up to arbitrate impartially in such cases, but the unions have said they will not attend or be bound by its decision.

Pope Recovering

VATICAN CITY (Reuters) — Pope Pius continued his customary audiences yesterday although his lip was still swollen as a result of an infection of a tooth which was extracted Wednesday. The swelling is expected to go down in the next two days.

There was also a display of handwork which had been completed by the 40 children who attended the school.

Others receiving the gold seal, blue ribbon award for being honor students were Ron Craig, Junior Dept.; Steven Hill, Kenny Nix, Jimmy Craig, Ron Morrison, Primary Dept.; Donna Marshall, Brian Hick, Sherry Peters, Bobby Peters, Sandra Mintenko, Lois Craig, Beginner Dept. This Tourist Didn't Know A Thing!

How far do you have to go to be a tourist?

Into the West Summerland post office the other day came a woman asking for a drink of water. Eager to oblige and create a good impression with a visitor, postal clerk D. L. Cruickshank said:

"I'll get you the best clear Okanagan spring water there is."

Cruickshank fetched the water, even wrapping the glass in a napkin.

"They don't cater much to tourists around here, do they," said the woman as the postal clerk turned to resume his work. He replied: "Oh, don't you think so? Where do you come from?"

"Peachland."
