BY-LAWS APPROVED

Local 708 WA elects president Mrs. Hanson

Mrs. B. K. Hanson was elected president of the Women's auxiliary to the International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers Local 708 Monday night when the group held its annual meeting and approved the new set of by-laws.

Others elected to office were Mrs. Arthur Lowes, vice-president; Mrs. R. L. Player, secretary; Mrs. R. H. Simonds, treasurer and executive members, Mrs. W. T. Rothwell, Mrs. Frank Graham and Mrs. B. J. Fortune.

Retiring president Mrs. Fortune will install the new slate of incoming officers at the next meeting, to be held in the form of a birthday party celebration.

During the business session it was decided to help dress dolls for the firemen at Christmas time.

It was decided to hold the annual "Christmas Tree" party on December 13.

By-laws proposed and approved by the membership are as follows:

1) The president shall not hold office for more than two consecutive years.

2) To be eligible for office, members must attend five meetings a year.

3) Dues to be payable April of each year.

4) The executive shall be able, if necessary, to spend $35 without calling a general meeting.

5) Past president shall automatically be an active executive member for the following year.

Refreshments were served to conclude the meeting.

Mother gives away babies, dislikes washing diapers

LONDON (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Winkley announced today they are expecting another baby and would like to give it away—as they did the one they had last year.

The child will be the Winkleys' fourth. They have kept two of them, David, 8, and Annette, 3.

When the third, Janet, came along last July, Mrs. Sheila Winkley, an attractive 27-year-old blonde, decided she couldn't face washing diapers for another infant. Also her husband was serving a one-year jail term for theft.

Ten days after Janet was born, the Winkleys gave her up for adoption by Mrs. Joyce Lee, a neighbor in the Cheshire village of Timberley, and her husband.

Husband Roy, now 29, got out of jail but still hasn't found a job. And Mrs. Winkley told an interviewer in her neat little home that they set out deliberately to have the new baby but now realize it was a mistake.

"When I lost Janet I felt terrible and wished I had her back," she said. "I was missing her so much my doctor said I should have another child, so Roy and I went ahead.

"But now, suddenly, all the old feelings have come back. It is really selfishness, but I cannot be bothered. I do not like all the trouble connected with a baby—getting up in the middle of the night, feeding, washing three-cornered pants."

SOMETHING NEW—New to fashion this season is the blouson. It is at its best when matched to a pleated skirt, such as this one, in an authentic ancient Cameron tartan made in Canada. —CP photo.

New honey spice cake recipe a favorite dessert for mothers

Make a list of favorite desserts and you will always find cake high at the top. So a new cake recipe is always welcome.

This Honey Spice Cake is geared to the busy life of the modern mother.

The honey in the cake helps make it smooth textured and fragrant. If you choose to reserve part of the cake, unfrosted, for another meal, you can do so without worry of staleness, for the honey helps retain moisture in the cake and keeps it fresh.

When you serve this cake you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you are serving a wholesome dessert as well as an appealing and satisfying one.

QUICK HONEY SPICE CAKE

2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
½ teaspoon allspice
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon cloves
¾ cup sugar
⅓ cup milk
¾ cup honey
½ cup butter
2 eggs, unbeaten

Measure sifted flour, baking powder, salt, spices, and sugar into sifter. Mix milk and honey together. Measure butter into mixing bowl and stir just to soften. Sift in dry ingredients. Then add ¾ cup of the honey and milk mixture. Mix until flour is dampened. Then beat 2 minutes at a low speed of electric mixer, or 300 vigorous strokes by hand. Add remaining liquid and eggs and beat 1 minute longer in mixer, or 150 strokes by hand.

Pour batter into two 8-inch layer pans, which have been lined on bottoms with paper. Bake in moderate oven (350 F.) about 35 minutes. When layers are cooled, spread Honey Orange Frosting between layers and on top of cake. Sprinkle grated orange rind in swirls of frosting, or use toasted flaked cocoanut.

HONEY ORANGE FROSTING

1 egg white
Dash of salt
½ cup honey
½ teaspoon grated orange rind

Beat egg white with salt until stiff enough to hold up in peaks, but not dry. Pour honey in fine stream over egg white, beating constantly about 4 minutes, or until frosting holds its shape. Or beat about 2½ minutes at high speed of electric mixer. Fold in orange rind before spreading.

Not French

Croissants, those flaky crescent breakfast rolls, so commonly associated with the French cuisine, aren't French in origin after all. They were invented by Hungarian Bakers.

Add onion salt

A little onion salt added to sandwich fillings such as egg, cream cheese, tomatoes, gives a mild, fresh flavor that carries no disadvantage of tears or perfumed fingers.
