"Skene" Roman, of the Ottawa team, is going to coach the Ottawa College squad this winter. College will have twenty players to choose from.

Canadiens have "Newsy" Lalonde and Donald Smith, who played at the coast last year. Hyland of the Wanderers and "Sue" McLean of the Torontos are the other two players of the Coast League who will figure in the N. H. A. this winter.

Dick Boon of the Wanderers is in the insurance business. He might take out a fire policy on the letters "Sammy Lichtenheim" wrote to Frank Patrick. They were warm enough to explode at any time.

The O. H. A. will have 102 teams playing hockey this winter; 12 in the senior, 47 in the intermediate and 37 in the junior.

After studying carefully the rise and fall of the stock market, delving into the intricacies of the auction bridge, following the manoeuvres of the ponies by chart, coaxing the fickle bones to roll the right way and betting on a pair of aces back to back where you know it's a deuce you have in the hole, we find the vicissitudes of pea pool just about as exhilarating as any indoor pastime on the schedule.

O'Leary of Port Arthur has gone to the Maritime Province League. He was supposed to join the Toronto professionals.

The Maritime League are after some Fort William hockey players. Walker and McGregor may go to the Halifax Crescents.

Quebec have Joe Malone, Paddy Moran and Jack Marks of their last year's champion team. Patrick brothers did not do a thing to the champs.

It is said the Patrick brothers got all their wrinkles in high finance at Renfrew, and as things now transpire they took the finance as well as the wrinkles.

California reports one grand lemon crop this season. The same prosperous conditions prevail in Toronto.

Jimmy Callahan, manager of the White Sox, is trying to land Watson, a pitcher of the Milwaukee team. He has offered $5,000 for the player.

Ten years ago "Ducky" Holmes signed his first contract as a ball player with the Saginaw club. Now he is manager and owner of that club.

Five of President Johnson's 1912 umpire staff will be missing next year, according to report. They are Sheridan, Perrine, Westervelt, Egan and O'Brien. This leaves Connolly, O'Loughlin, Evans, Dineen and Hart, with Ferguson and Hildebrand and possibly McGreevey to choose from.

Remanded on Conspiracy Charge. Toronto, Dec. 24.—Charged with conspiracy to defraud the creditors of the P. E. Frank Company, Isadore E. Frank was remanded in the police court for a week without electing or pleading. His bail of $10,000 was renewed. Frank claims that he was not a member of the company, but simply engaged as manager.

King Raises Wages.

London, Dec. 24.—The King granted an increase in wages of 31 cents per week to all the Frogmore garden laborers, in view of the increased cost of living. This increase was made on the King's own initiative.

Sweets of Unwelcome Love.

Johannesburg, Dec. 24.—Mrs. Alexander Ross of Johannesburg punished a man for pestering her with unwelcome attentions by pouring the contents of a gallon jar of treacle over him and then, with the assistance of her husband, rolled him in flour.
