Electi Excitement Was ause of Death; Contest Postponed

VANCOUVER CENTRE AND VICTORIA CITY WILL NOT VOTE UNTIL NOVEMBER 27 WITH NOMINATIONS NOVEMBER 6—BOWSER HAD NOTABLE RECORD AS LEGISLATOR FOR BRITISH COLUMBIA.

VICTORIA, Oct. 26: (CP)—The Election Act automatically provides for postponement of the election contests in Vancouver Centre and Victoria, in both of which ridings the late W. J. Bowser was running. Voting for the six seats—two in Vancouver Centre and four in Victoria—will take place on November 27 with new nominations on November 6, it is announced. This will follow the general election and will probably result in a new and altogether different complexion being put on the contests. Numerous candidates are involved.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 26: (CP)—The sudden death yesterday of Former Premier W. J. Bowser is believed to have been brought on by over excitement over the impending election. Thinking it was indigestion or slight ptomaine poisoning, he had complained a few days ago of not feeling very well but, seeming to recover somewhat, he continued his political campaign engagements and on Tuesday night spoke at a meeting in Mount Pleasant. At 4 o'clock yesterday morning he took a bad heart spell and called his niece, Miss Gladys Irving, who summoned his old friend and personal physician, Dr. Frank Patterson. Following a consultation which diagnozed a heart attack and ministrations of heart specialists, the veteran politician appeared for a time to rally but he started about noon to sink again and, despite all that could be done, at 1:30 p.m. passed peacefully away in his room at the Hotel Vancouver.

Friends of Mr. Bowser said that he died as he would have wished—in harness.

Funeral services will be held at St. Andrews-Wesley Church here on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock after the body has lain in state for two hours. The remains will be cremated and the ashes sent to Victoria to lie beside those of his wife.

Out of respect to Mr. Bowser, all political meetings in Vancouver and Victoria were cancelled Wednesday night.

Notable Record

Few statesmen established a more notable record for continuity of service as legislator in British Columbia than William J. Bowser, K.C., who died here suddenly yesterday. After essaying unsuccessfully to enter the federal House of Commons, he was elected to the provincial legislature in 1897 and his services were unbroken until 1924. He played a strong role, first as aggressive private member representing Vancouver; then as attorney-general; minister of finance and commissioner of fisheries; as premier; and, finally, as leader of the Conservative opposition.

In 1907 he was made a member of Sir Richard McBride's cabinet as attorney-general and it was largely due to Mr. Bowser's advice that Premier McBride threw off the cloak of coalition and declared for party government.

During the long period of Conservative administration Mr. Bowser was repeatedly re-elected by his constituency in Vancouver and on more than one occasion he headed the poll. In 1909 and 1910 he served as minister of finance.

As attorney-general, he initiated the first motor traffic legislation adopted in British Columbia. First attempts toward control of the liquor traffic were made at this time. Under the law which he introduced hours maintained by liquor selling establishments were curtailed, road houses were ordered closed on Sundays and saloon licenses were limited to hostelries with thirty or more rooms. He also sponsored prison reforms leading to the establishment of the first prison farms in the province.

Short Time Premier

Mr. Bowser's tenure as premier was brief. Upon dissolution of the McBride ministry on December 15, 1915, he was entrusted by Lieutenant-Governor F. S. Barnard with the duty of forming a new cabinet, and he held office as premier until the defeat of the Conservative party at the polls in the general election of September, 1916.

Re-elected in Vancouver personally in 1916 and 1920, Mr. Bowser, in succeeding sessions of the legislature, as leader of the opposition, was the keenest critic of the administration of Premier John Oliver, attacking the government's Pacific Great Eastern Railway policy, its financial policy and its methods of administering the British Columbia Liquor Act. He was defeated in the 1924 general election and retired from public life.

Opposed to Oriental competition in the industry of the province, Mr. Bowser offered a resolution during the 1922 session urging the federal government not to enter any international treaties with Asiatic countries without first obtaining the consent of the British Columbia legislature. This resolution was

Albert Harut Chosen to Form New French Cabinet and Accepts Task

PARIS, Oct. 26: (CP)—Senator Albert Harut yesterday was asked by President Lebrun to form a cabinet following the resignation of the Daladier administration and accepted the task.

The invitation to Senator Harut followed a day of fruitless conversations Tuesday by President Lebrun with various leaders, the interviews being continued yesterday until finally Harut agreed to accept.

Prior to the selection and acceptance of Harut, it had been thought that Camille Chautemps would be chosen. It is understood, however, that he declined the offer.

NORAH HAD ROUGH TRIP

Capt. Palmer Reports One of Most Unseasonable Voyages in His Career on Coast

One of the roughest and most unseasonable voyages he has experienced on the coast was reported by Capt. William Palmer, master of the steamer Princess Norah, which was in port yesterday afternoon southbound from Skagway to Vancouver. The vessel became iced up facing into a bitterly cold gale while going up Lynn Canal into Skagway on Monday, the temperature at the Alaska gateway port being well below zero. The wind was even more intense coming back down Lynn Canal after leaving Skagway Monday night and the staunch vessel had a very rough time of it, the skipper finally turning his ship around to ride it out for several hours.

There was snow for the entire voyage from Skagway to Ketchikan with several inches lying on the dock at Ketchikan yesterday morning when the vessel was there. A few hours before reaching Prince Rupert, the Princess Norah dropped the icy mantle she had carried for several days.

The Princess Norah had on board 60 passengers, including members of the carpenter crew of the White Pass and Yukon Route river fleet at Whitehorse going south for the winter. Five persons disembarked from the vessel here while four boarded her here to go south.

CAMPAIGN ECHOES

PLEASE GIVE US THEIR NAMES

Rudderham's campaign committee says the provincial executive of the C. C. F. (which they object to calling the Council of Nine) is composed of men of sterling character, whose names and records are too well known to need repeating.

This will not do. At the expense of becoming tedious we must insist on knowing who these men are who will be our dictators if the C. C. F. attains to power. The people have the right to know.

We frankly confess that the only two we know are W. A. Pritchard, he of the anti-Christ mania, and Dr. Lyle Telford, the advocate of companionate marriage.

Is the local committee afraid to name the others for fear we should recognize a further batch of cranks and faddists?

Is the distinguished Mr. W. W. Lefaux by any chance a member of the council? This is the lawyer who is carrying the C. C. F. banner in Centre Vancouver.

He says the C. C. F. is going to establish the Soviet system in British Columbia without any more words about it and that we will soon catch up with Russia. So that's that!

Or by any peradventure is Miss Osterhout a member of this council? Miss Osterhout is the lady who is also running in Vancouver as a C. C. F. candidate and who is going to see that the school children are taught the doctrines of Carl Marx and who says the C. C. F. will discharge all teachers who refuse to advocate Socialism in the schools.

Once again we ask Mr. Rudderham to give us the list of names comprising the council.

We think possibly the committee may be right in saying their records are too well known to need repeating. Just give us the names, never mind their records.

BOWSER PASSES

The sudden death of W. J. Bowser, former Premier of British Columbia, yesterday afternoon came as a sad blow to everyone. The movement which he had championed had failed and that, doubtless, had a good deal to do with hastening his end.

While Mr. Bowser was not a great man, he filled a useful purpose in the development of the province. At the time of the 1916 elections he had many bitter political enemies because he was a staunch party man and pinned his faith to the party machine. After his retirement people tried to remember his good points rather than those which had been criticized. Unhappily he was urged to make a belated effort to bring about better conditions in the province, an effort which he must have felt was destined to failure. People who met him recently and heard him read his speeches spoke of him as a broken old man but he did not give up.

Everyone must admire the courage and tenacity of the late Mr. Bowser. His demise must have met with general regret. Unhappily, he found it difficult to adjust himself to the requirements of modern conditions. He associated too much with men who live in the past rather than the future and who cannot understand the progress the world is making and the necessity of adjusting oneself to the change.

We shall join with people all over the province in expression of appreciation of a man of outstanding character. The fates were against his attaining a great position or doing great things.

UNITED FRONT CONFIDENT

Supporters of Charles Chapman, United Front candidate, declare that they have over six hundred voters definitely pledged to vote for their candidate and they expect in addition a large sympathetic vote, the size of which it is impossible to estimate. They expect to make a good showing even if they do not win. We had no idea they were anything like that strong.

replaced by a government resolution asking for absolute exclusion of Orientals and prohibition of Orientals from acquiring industrial rights within the provnce, and Mr. Bowser supported the measure.

Return to Public Life

After considerable pressure had been brought to bear upon him, Mr. Bowser early this year returned to the political arena in British Columbia as leader of the new Independent Non-Partizan movement in opposition to the old line Conservative and Liberal parties as well as to the return to office of the Tolmie government with which it had been an open secret he (Mr. Bowser) had differed in opinion on many policies. It was known to Mr. Bowser's friends that his return to public life was against the advice of his physicians but he refused to admit that he was failing rapidly and went ahead with his plan. It was no surprise, however, when he relinquished the active leadership of the new faction some weeks ago, although accepting nomination as a candidate both in Vancouver and Victoria in the election contest.

Mr. Bowser was born in Rexton, N.B., Dec. 3, 1867, being of Scotch and English descent. He was the son of William and Margaret Bowser. His father was a merchant, and his paternal grandfather was John Bowser, who for many years was colonial magistrate in New Brunswick. Following graduation with a degree of B.A. from Dalhousie University, Halifax, in 1890, Mr. Bowser journeyed to Vancouver, where he formed a partnership and practised law under the firm name of Bowser and Lavelle. Later the firm became known as Bowser, Reid and Walbridge, which for years has been one of the best known legal firms in the province. He specialized in criminal law and on numerous occasions appeared as crown prosecutor. He was made a Q.C. in 1900.

On September 9, 1896, he married Mis Lorinda Doherty, of Vancouver, who died in 1928. Mrs. Bowser was an active worker in women's organizations in Vancouver and Victoria. There were no children.

Mr. Bowser spent the last few years in Victoria. He was a member of the Union Club, Victoria; of the Vancouver Club, and Mount Hermon Lodge, A.F. & A.M. He attained his thirty-second degree through Scottish Rite and in 1904 was elected grand master for British Columbia. He originally belonged to the Presbyterian Church and, after union, the United.

DISAPPROVES ECHOES

Editor, Daily News:

Your paper has been carrying daily items "Campaign Echoes" which, it seems to me are unworthy of a reputable journal. I do not wish to discuss the political campaign but in the name of common decency and justice I must make this protest against the standard of Liberal ethics that is producing "Campaign Echoes." What kind of a mind and soul is behind the pen that stoops to such gross misrepresentation and vilification of character.

Being interested in social movements and the application of the Social Gospel thereto I have been keenly interested in the development of thought that finds expression in the C.C.F. and from what I know of the movement I must say that Campaign Echoes are monstrous misrepresentation of facts.

Why vilify a man's character? Is it not the essence of meanness to hold it against a man for having been in jail? Some of the world's best men have suffered imprisonment. And with regard to what a man said 14 years ago about Christ—did not Peter who denied his Lord become one of the great apostles?

May I ask—does Mr. Pattullo approve of these Campaign Echoes? If so it seems to me that a higher type of ethics should be demanded of one who aspires to the premiership of this province. How many Liberals in Prince Rupert approve of the tactics of the Liberal committee?

Can not our political parties set forth their platforms in such a way that they will carry their own appeal without recourse to hitting below the belt? If politics cannot be Godly surely they can be next best, that is CLEAN.

NOTHING TO COMPARE WITH BUCKLEY'S FOR COUGHS AND COLDS

G. Billings of Colonsay, Sask. ought to know, for he has taken BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE for years. He writes: "There is nothing on the market to equal it. Its flash-like action is sudden death to a cold."

No matter how stubborn or long standing your cough or cold may be, try BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE. You will be amazed at the instant relief it affords. The very first sip relieves the cough, and in no time at all clears up the deep-seated congestion soothes and heals the tender, inflamed membranes and fortifies them against future attacks.

Buckley's acts like a flash—A single sip proves it.

A Brief Synopsis of Liberal Policy

HEREWITH is a brief synopsis of policy as laid down by the Liberal Party of British Columbia, in convention held in October, 1932.

Many matters of interest, not specifically set out, will require consideration. The principles enunciated are indicative of the Liberal viewpoint, and are broad enough to meet every question within provincial jurisdiction.

The Liberal Party exists as an official organization for the purpose of formulating and furthering measures that will make for the well-being of each individual member of society, and the welfare of society as a whole.

Innumerable questions, both of public and personal character, can be properly treated only through the agency of government.

Government is not an ordinary business, but carries responsibility to meet every problem arising from our complex social and economic conditions, in order that not merely a few, but all of our people may live in reasonable comfort.

The Liberal Party pledges immediate action under the best available advice and closest study.

T. D. PATTULLO.

August, 1933.

1.—Profitable and permanent Employment is the most important question facing our people. There should be co-operation between the national, provincial and municipal authorities and the Canadian banking system to establish the necessary credit to carry out a broad programme of constructive and useful wage-distributing public enterprise, and to further the health, education and well-being of all our people.

An Economic Council should be established, the membership of which shall consist of representatives of the various avenues of endeavour, such as health, education, agriculture, labour and the industries. This council will be appointed by the government on recommendation of the interests involved, and will act in an advisory capacity to the government.

Amongst other things the council will study industrial and social effort in the province and suggest means to correlate these efforts. It will familiarize itself with intra, inter-provincial and foreign trade, and will co-operate with the other provinces and the Dominion. It will also study such questions as production and consumption, and the marketing of our products, the number of hours of work per day and days of work per week, the standard of wages and commodity prices. These questions are of national as well as provincial concern, and British Columbia can take the lead in urging co-operation with the other provinces and the Dominion as a whole.

National Unemployment Insurance should be established upon a contributory basis.

2.—Our Financial position must be reviewed. Current expenditure must be kept within current revenue. While maintaining the credit of the province, effort must be made to reduce capital charges. We cannot continue to pay exorbitant rates of interest for money.

3.—The Taxation Structure must be revised with a view to reduction wherever possible, including exemption in the lower scale of wages and salaries.

4.—The health of each of us is important to the whole community, and a measure of State Health Insurance should be made effective, not only to preserve health, but to reduce costs both to the average citizen and to industry.

5.—A general and effective review must be made of the Educational problem, rejecting any proposed organization that involves a caste system. We must facilitate the intellectual growth of each individual member of society in order to equip him for his daily tasks, and for the enjoyment of such cultural pursuits as may be in keeping with our social customs.

Triangular disagreements between the school boards, municipal councils and the department of education must be adjusted, and our whole system placed upon a sound financial basis.

6.—The financial position of our Municipalities is of increasing concern. An equitable adjustment must be made as between the province and the municipalities, and the municipalities placed in a sound financial position.

7.—An effort should be made to settle our Agricultural Lands in order that more of our citizens may be self-supporting. Agriculture as a whole must be put upon a sound and profitable basis, and made capable of sustaining and directing itself, in line with all other national, basic industries.

8.—Continuous effort should be put forth to assist industry in Marketing its products, in timber, agriculture, fishing, mining and, in fact, every operation where it appears that useful service can be rendered.

9.—Our highways must be kept in good condition, both for the benefit of settlers and the tourist traffic, and expanded as circumstances warrant. In this connection a Highway Board should be established to make for continuity of policy and to inspire confidence in impartial treatment.

10.—A Public Utilities Commission should be established.

11.—A National Central Bank should be established.

12.—Social Services, such as Mothers' Pensions, Old Age Pensions, etc., must be maintained. Abuses of administration should not be allowed, and injustice through mere technicalities should not be permitted.

13.—The Peace River must be given access to the Coast.

14.—In order that the utmost Freedom of Action by Members of the Legislature may be assured in respect of questions before the House, it is Liberal policy that a government shall be considered to be defeated only upon a straight want-of-confidence motion.

15.—The Dominion Government will be asked to place the Province of British Columbia upon a basis of equality with the other provinces, and to this end request will be made for a Royal Commission to ascertain the extent to which the Province of British Columbia has not been given Equality of Treatment with the Other Provinces of the Dominion.

16.—There shall be a permanent Voters' List to ensure that all eligible voters are enrolled.

17.—The Leader of the Liberal Party is given a free mandate to choose for his associates in government, men of character, ability and standing, having regard solely to the public interest.

Class "B" Amplification—unquestionably this is the radio for you when your job takes you far from the big broadcasting stations.
