EX-HEAVYWEIGHT BOXING CHAMPION EZZARD CHARLES of bygone boxing days will stage a wrestling match at Prince Rupert's Civic Centre this coming Saturday. Part of his stay will be spent looking at some of our local boxing talent, with the possibility of a fat $5,000 contract to any boy who in Charles' eyes; shows some ability.

Former champ Charles to fight here Saturday

Acting Sports Editor of The Daily News Old boxers never die...they just become wrestlers, and this ninth, climaxed an action-packadage will prove itself Saturday night, when former heavyweight ed game in which Ernie Banks of champion Ezzard Charles stages a match at the Civic Centre. the Cubs was carried off Charles, along with three other wrestlers will be in Prince field after being hit with a pitch Rupert long enough to hold three fights and take a gander at and Cincinnati pitcher Joe Nuxsome of our local boxing talent.

The 38-year-old fighter has been touring the western Canadian assaulting umpire Ed Vargo. provinces, wrestling and looking for promising young boxers. So far, only one boy, a Saskatchewan youth, has measured up to his qualifications. Anyone selected by Charles will be offered a $5,000 contract to train for a boxing career in the United States. Persons interested, do not need any previous experience, suffered serious injury. Examor does age, weight or height make any difference. The Daily News will see that Ezzard Charles gets all the names. All that is required of the candidates is that they are at the Civic Centre after 3 p.m. Saturday.

Tony Klotz, spokesman for the four matmen, told me Saturday that "we don't want fellows going into the ring with the intention of killing someone, because these will just be sparring bouts so that Charles can study the boys' forms."

*Klotz, a Prince George resident, is classed as the junior heavyweight wrestling champion of Canada. Formerly he was a Golden Gloves boxer, and was in contention for the championship.

The last titles he held were Caribou and northern B.C champion.

His opponent Saturday night is "The Red Bolo." No one seems to know much about this Bolo, but we shall find out Saturday.

Charles will battle Jack Galento from New Jersey in his bout and a tag team match will be fought but the teams have not yet been named.

It was only a year ago since Charles fought his last bout, and he has apparently kept up his boxing endurance in the wrestling field.

He. like all wrestlers has a favorite hold which on opponents, who "get me mad." Charles uses a fore-arm smash, which is simply an elbow in the face.

"It's illegal in boxing," he has said, "but it sure comes in Runs batted in-Maris, New handy in wrestling." He has told reporters that he doesn't find wrestling any tougher than boxing. At any rate, Klotz has assured us, that for the price of a riclo and Fox, Chicago, and Becquer, hair-cut ($1.50) fans are assured of an entertaining and good Washington 6.

evening of wrestling. We hope this is true, as the memory of that day July 11. 1960 still adoms wresh in people's inings.
