SMITHERS FAIR WAS FINANCIAL SUCCESS

Balance on Right Side Reported at Meeting of Directors Wednesday

SMITHERS, Sept. 5. — The board of directors of the Bulkley Valley Fall Fair held a meeting in the Municipal Office on Wednesday night. As this was the first meeting following the annual fair there was a full turnout to greet the president, J. C. K. Sealy, who presided.

The report of the secretary-treasurer, Rev. M. W. Lees, was the chief item of interest. The report indicated that Smithers held its most successful fair in 1924.

In spite of innumerable drawbacks such as the early date, a very poor growing season, and wet weather preceding and during the fair, entries were in excess of any previous year, and what is of most importance to the directorate a substantial balance shows on the right side of the ledger.

The annual meeting of the Fair Association is called for Wednesday, October 18 next.

ROAD WILL COST OVER A MILLION

Legislation Will be Asked to Vote Money for Transprovincial Road

VICTORIA, Sept. 5—One of the most important government projects ever undertaken by the Oliver administration is the completing of the Transprovincial Highway between Hope and the Interior. Hon. W. H. Sutherland, minister of public works, announces that tenders will be called for this work within four weeks, while the bidders will have October to look over plans and prepare their estimates. When the legislature meets late in October the tenders will have been decided upon and the House will be asked to vote the necessary money. The link will cost about $1,000,000, with an additional $250,000 required for the big steel bridge across the Fraser river at Spuzzum. The government plans to carry on some of the work this winter, if unemployment conditions can be relieved in this manner.

TURKS BOB HAIR SAYS VISITOR FROM THERE

Mother of Famous Poet Astonishes Son with News of Developments in Ottaman Empire

NEW YORK, Sept. 5. — When Mrs. Fikret Bey, wife of Turkey's most famous modern poet, arrived here to visit her son, an assistant professor at the University of Cincinnati, she was greeted with the news that he had married an American girl—and a bobbed hair girl. "Oh, that is nothing. Your reverend aunt, forty years old, has bobbed hers too," responded the Turkish mother. Mrs. Fikret Bey then explained to the astonished young man that many things had happened since the Nationalist Government came into power in Turkey. "Turkey has become very European in recent years," she said. "The women wear no veils on the street and their costumes are just like those of Parisian women, save for the silk scarf which they wear tight about their heads. Young Turkish women wore decollete gowns at the Red Crescent ball, given recently, and they danced all the modern steps."

DUTCH SETTLERS TO COME TO CANADA IF EDITORS REPORT GOOD

Those Migrating Will be Men with Agricultural Experience

WINNIPEG, Sept. 5. — Many farmers' sons and farm laborers of Holland with thorough agricultural training will come to Canada as settlers, if the party of Dutch editors at present touring the Dominion give a favorable report to their government on conditions in Canada.

This was the opinion advanced by M. J. Brusse, one of the party during his stop in Winnipeg. Emigration from Holland, he said, was on the increase and would continue to grow. However, Canada could not expect to receive annually great numbers of immigrants from Holland because that country was not overpopulated with agriculturalists, although the industrial field was overcrowded. There was no intention of burdening Canada with artisans, Mr. Brusse declared.

Settlers sent over would be desirable farmers, who understood agriculture in all its phases. Many sons of farmers in Holland found it impossible to obtain land in their native country with the inevitable result that they sought other continents in which to settle. In the past a large number of these young men had migrated to the United States, but if Canadian conditions were favorable, they would not require much persuasion to try farming here.
