ADDRESS GIVEN ON ROBT. BURNS

Rev. T. H. McAllister Spoke at Rotary Club Luncheon Yesterday Afternoon

One of the finest addresses heard by the Rotary Club in a long time was that delivered yesterday afternoon on the poet Burns by Rev. T. H. McAllister, pastor of Rupert East Church, Jarvis McLeod presiding. It was an oration of high quality and was much enjoyed by members of the club and visitors at the luncheon.

Mr. McAllister spoke of the brilliancy of the Scottish poet, who had achieved undying fame through his ability to express the human emotions which had caused his name to be inscribed in the hall of fame forever. His favorite themes were personal freedom and the brotherhood of man. He believed that man was the greatest of God's creatures. He told a story to illustrate his point. His life was a struggle against selfishness.

Speaking of the reverence of the poet for nature, Mr. McAllister mentioned a number of Burn's nature poems which showed the utmost sympathy and compassion. Cut off in early life the poet's end was hastened by his own actions. In spite of his weaknesses he never abandoned his scheme of self support and devotion to his art. The courage of the man was almost infinite. Scotland would continue to honor his memory and value his contributions to the world's life and thought.

Among the visitors present were Capt. F. T. Saunders, superintendent of Marine; R. L. McIntosh and Jim Gibbons a Rotarian of Bangor, Maine, brother of the late E. C. Gibbons.

MISS WOOD MARRIED IN REGINA RECENTLY

(Regina Leader)

A quiet wedding was solemnized at Metropolitan United Church manse, Lorne Street, on Tuesday, January 29, when Alexina Wood, Prince Rupert, B.C., became the bride of William Baxter Cook, Gravelbourg, Sask. The bride was very lovely in a heavily beaded gown of white crepe de chine, and a bridal veil of Spanish lace. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and Ophelia roses. Mrs. Harold Nugent and Stanley Johnston attended the nuptial couple. Mrs. Nugent wearing a becoming costume of bos de rose crepe and carrying a bouquet of carnations. Mrs. Wood, the bride's mother, was becomingly gowned in silver grey satin. Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served to the bridal party. Mr. and Mrs. Cook are spending a few days in the city before proceeding to Gravelbourg, where they will make their home.

It is expected that daily service on the local line of the Canadian National Railways will be resumed about May 10, same time as last year.

FASHION FANCIES

In chiffon, georgette, satin or any of the other near silk fabrics so popular this season, this dress is the last word in fashion. Note the broad flower design extending from the waist upward, with buckle design in front. Also the uneven hemmed skirt with numerous flounces. Sleeves are tight and long, while the neck is plain with lace yoke.

DAILY NEWS' SHOPPING SERVICE for Out-of Town Subscribers

To serve its women readers, and particularly those who live at a distance from a retail centre, The Daily News has instituted a Shopping Service. The Daily News is read by hundreds of women living far from any urban facilities for shopping and it is for these that this shopping service is primarily intended. Of course, The Daily News Shopper will attend to the man also, although he can buy a pair of braces anywhere. But not everywhere can a woman get a bit of lace matched—or a piece of embroidery thread—or the thousand and one things that make up the difference between a woman's wants and a man's.

The Prince Rupert Merchants Carry between them Stocks running up to $2,000,000 and while it is not possible to purchase everything in this world in Prince Rupert, most things are available by return mail.

None of the Prince Rupert merchants can possibly advertise everything they carry in stock, but if the thing wanted is to be got in this city, our out-of-town readers may be sure that The Daily News Shopper will get it when asked for.

If any of our women readers cannot get what they want in their nearest store, all there is to do is to write to The Daily News Shopper, stating what is required with whatever details there may be, enclosing the cost, and if it is in Prince Rupert, The Daily News Shopper makes your purchase.
