In the Scottish League Celtic pulled out a lead of two clear points, for they gained a victory over Dundee and the Rangers were badly beaten by the Airdrieonians. Falkirk kept on in their winning streak and won in very convincing style from St. Mirren and are now tied with Hearts for third place, the Airdrieonians being close behind them.

Morton and Aberdeen both dropped points and Clyde were defeated by the biggest score of the day, 5 to 1, Raith Rovers being their conquerors. The Hibernians' win at Aberdeen was a surprise and it has elevated them a little in the table.

AL. PALZER FAVORITE OVER LUKE M'CARTY

Los Angeles, Dec. 27.—There will be exactly $39,075 in the Vernon box office, according to Promoter Tom McCarey's figures, when Al. Palzer and Luther McCarty meet for the world's heavyweight championship on the afternoon of New Year's Day.

"The reservation list of today practically cleans us out and assures us that there won't be a vacant chair in the arena," said McCarey tonight. "Never since I have been in the game has there been such a rush for seats. By putting my prices up I could have played to a $50,000 house, but as my seats only range from $3 to $15, the capacity mark is $39,075."

In the betting Palzer has been made a 10 to 8 favorite.

Basket Ball Too Strenuous.

Ithaca, N. Y., Dec. 27.—Young Women students at Cornell will not be allowed to play basket ball with other colleges in future because of the high nervous tendencies resulting. The athletic council took this step upon the recommendation of Dr. Esther Parker, who told the council that intercollegiate games were injurious.

Wilson's Niece to Go on Stage.

New York, Dec. 27.—Margaret Howe, niece of President-elect Woodrow Wilson, and wife of George Howe, professor of Latin at the University of North Carolina, is seeking an engagement on the stage, according to announcement here. For three months Mrs. Howe was playing one night stands with Mme. Mazimovo. When the famous Russian actress returned to New York to open in a new play there was no part for Mrs. Howe.

Acquitted of Big Theft.

Chicago, Dec. 27.—George W. Fitzgerald, who has been on trial here for six weeks on a charge of having stolen $170,000 from the Chicago sub-treasury, has been acquitted.

Tom and Jerry at the Savoy.

City Buys Poe's Cottage.

New York, Dec. 27.—Edgar Allan Poe's cottage in Fordham is to be purchased by the City of New York, removed from its present site and re-established in Poe Park here, according to announcement recently. The board of estimates has voted in favor of the purchase and plans are under way to remove the cottage.

Be Suspicious

BE suspicious of that of which nobody is proud. Be suspicious of the mere low-price argument offered in favor of an article with no reputation, no backer, no guarantor.

Better buy the thing you know and can trust, than an article unbranded and unvouched for.

The branded shoe, made by a maker with a reputation, is a safer shoe to buy than the one made in an unknown factory by an unknown maker.

The underwear made by a firm whose name is as familiar to you as your own, is worth more to you than underwear nameless or labelled by a maker of whom you have never heard.

Tea sealed in a packet bearing the name of a reputable firm is to be preferred to tea of which the packer is not sufficiently proud to advertise its quality.

That in which much money has been invested to make or keep it good is worth more than that on which nothing or but little has been spent.

Peace of mind is worth something, just as quality is. Buy peace of mind.

When you buy anything worth while buying, buy that of which you know—from advertisements, or from other dependable acquaintance. Buy the article with the "money back" guarantee—with the pledge of a known name behind it.

Put your faith in the advertisements appearing in good newspapers. Beware of the article that cannot stand the spot-light of publicity. The commodity an advertiser backs with his own money is something worth your buying.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.
