Usually the day following Christmas brings with it unpleasant recollections of friends who have been inadvertently overlooked in the matter of Christmas gifts. Isn't it fortunate that New Year's Day follows so closely and gives us an opportunity to make amends for our oversights during the Christmas rush. While the past week's shopping made very heavy inroads into our stock, the assortments in each line are practically unbroken. We have a large range of beautiful things for New Year's gifts. Renworth & Jefferson*'THIRD DEGREE' TO BE PLAYED THIS EVENING

Griffith Stock Co. Will Present
Famous Criminal Play Tonight
—"The City" on Monday.

Christmas week has proved pretty good for the show business, the spirit of holiday making taking the people out to the different theatres in the evenings in great numbers. With the number of other attractions there was a remarkably good house last night to witness the Griffith players put on that hoary old melodrama, "East Lynne." As long as the English language lasts the sad domestic story unfolded in this great play will hold an audience, no matter what part of the globe they may be in for the time being. The audience, who were in a most agreeable and sympathetic mood, despite the different kinds of weather that was ringing the changes outside, received the play with marked approval, as was testified by their repeated applause.

Miss Miller, in the dual role of Lady Isabel and Madam Vine, was, as usual, excellent, acting with quiet repression in the difficult parts that called for the highest praise.

Harry Lancaster as Archibald Carlyle, Richard Frazier in the part of the fashionable roue, Sir Francis Levison, and Rex Snellgrove as Lord Mount Severn made the most of the opportunities offered them.

S. M. Griffith and Miss Lillian Griffith in strong character parts left nothing to be desired.

Claud Brennan in the character of Richard Hare played with that abandon and style of which he is such a well known master.

Charming little Miss Zana Vaughn again captivated the audience with her portrayal of the ingenue role of Miss Carlyle.

This afternoon there will be a matinee performance of this play and this evening, by special request, that powerful drama, "The Third Degree," will be staged. This is assured of drawing a big house, as it is one of the great plays of the present day. On Monday "The City" will be played.

Baptist Services.

Special Christmas programme by the children of the Sunday school, assisted by the church choir, at 7:30 p. m. The programme will consist of Christmas carols, solos, readings, etc., and a short address by the pastor. You should plan to hear the children tomorrow evening. Morning worship at 11 o'clock and Bible school at 2:30 p. m. Strangers and visitors cordially invited. All services held in McIntyre Hall, Third Avenue, near Sixth street.

Before the Cadi.

Before Magistrate Carss this morning in the police court there were only four delinquents and they were of the juvenile class. No especial charges were laid, but in the interests of the youth of the city some good advice was given and a warning admonishment set forth that the authorities were going to see that their edicts were carried out.

MISS JESSIE MILLER

Who will appear in the leading role in "The Third Degree" at the Westholme Opera House tonight.

CATHOLIC CELEBRATION
LAST NIGHT A SUCCESS

Children and Grown-Ups Enjoyed
Themselves at the Christmas
Entertainment.

Merry, smiling faces, sparkling eyed, happy children danced around in great glee at the Catholic Hall last evening at the annual Christmas tree and entertainment, that both old and young take such a delight in at this season of the year. There was a large gathering of parents children and others to take part in the festive occasion. There were presents for all and laughter and merriment reigned. After the work of old Santa Claus had been accomplished to the entire satisfaction of all present, a most delightful little programme was gone through by the children.

The first item was a dialogue by the Misses Hilda Curtin, Belle Flaherty and Grace Curtin. Next Little Stockings, by Clarissa followed a recitation, "The Two Griffiths." A song, "The Two Marionettes," by Miss Hilda Curtin, was received with loud applause, as was also a recitation, "The Christmas Tree and the Mouse," by Miss Louise Rowell. The last number on the programme, a sketch, "Christmas Gifts," made a big hit, those taking part being Misses Bernice Palmer, Hilda Curtin, Grace Curtin, Astori, Louise Astori, Alice Early, Louise Rowell, Clarissa Griffith, Louise Walley, Belle Flaherty and Master John Shea.

To Miss Blanche Curtin is due the greatest praise and credit for the work of getting up the entertainment which proved such a great success. Miss Curtin accompanied on the piano and personally directed the sketch.

Good Show at Empress.

Determined to outvie anything before done in the city in the way of moving picture shows, Mr. Stevens, the genial manager of the Empress Theatre, is certainly giving his numerous patrons good value for their money these days. At the regular popular prices of admission he is producing two banner feature shows, each lasting nearly an hour and three-quarters. The programme last night, which will be repeated again this evening, was one of a most interesting and attractive character. The star feature, "The Daughter of the Spy," in two parts, was a most fascinating and dramatic story, acted magnificently by the very best artists—right in the heart of Italy, that country of romance. Pathe's Weekly, to see which is one of the events of the week, again proved replete with lifelike representations of the world's doings. Two charming love stories, "The Winds of Fate" and "When Two Hearts Are Won," with a couple of excitingly funny films, went to make up an evening's entertainment that would be hard to beat anywhere.
