Riders drub Lions 35-14

By JIM PEACOCK
Canadian Press Staff Writer

VANCOUVER (CP)—Ottawa Rough Riders return home today knowing they have a gold mine in Canadian talent for the coming Big Four football season.

Their Canadians stood side-by-side with the United States imports in the glory Thursday night as Riders scored an easy 35-14 victory over British Columbia Lions in the last exhibition game for both clubs.

Three figured in the scoring and several more gave good accounts of themselves both defensively and offensively.

Canadian ends Ted Smale and Bob Simpson took forward passes for touchdowns and rookie halfback Ron Stewart scampered around the end for five yards to another as Riders rolled up a 35-0 lead in the first three quarters before 18,147 fans at Empire Stadium.

Lions' touchdown came from veteran halfback Ed Vereb and on two-yard plunge and Iowa sensation Willie Fleming, who burst through a gaping hole in the left side of the line, then made a 79-yard run to score. Ted Hunt kicked converts both times.

Statistically, the story was fairly even—Ottawa had 25 first downs, Lions 24; Ottawa had 371 yards passing and Lions 275; Lions had 268 yards rushing and Ottawa 187; Ottawa completed 19 of 29 passes while Lions completed 17 of 28 and had one intercepted.

The Tripucka-to-Clark and Allard-to-Smale combinations were Riders' best during the game while Lions, when they found the range in the fourth, saw Duncan hitting Paul Cameron and end Jerry Janes for good gains.

The victory was the second in three exhibition games with Western Interprovincial Football Union teams for Ottawa. Riders beat Lions 24-22 earlier in Ottawa but were trampled Monday night by Edmonton Eskimos. Lions earned a split in four games, having defeated Hamilton and Saskatchewan.

Riders open their Big Four season Aug. 18. Lions start the WIFU season here next Thursday night against Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

Wahls trim Savoy 15-6, Standring big hitter

By MARILYN ANDERSON

Wahl's boatyard gained their twelfth win of the Women's Softball league season last night as they drubbed a weak Savoy Hotel crew 15-6 at Gyro Park.

Selma Standring led the Boatyard girls at bat with a tripie and two singles good for two counters. Right behind her with three singletons was Shirley Logan. Millie Bellis notched a pair of singles.

For Savoy, Gail Harvey with three singles and Carol Bryant with a double were the heavy hitters.

Wahls' garnered 11 of their total runs in the first three innings. Savoy made a hard attempt in the final two frames, marking up five tallies.

Pearl Morberg, Wahl's chucker, struck out one, walked one and allowed nine hits. Loser Kay Osowetski struck out seven, walked four and was tagged for 12 hits.

Next league game will be 2 p.m. Sunday when Booth meets Fashion.

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Clint Stark of Anaheim pitched a 12-inning no-hitter and struck out 27 batters Thursday night but his team lost.

Stockton defeated Anaheim in an American Legion junior baseball tournament game 2-1 in 13 innings.

Under legion rules a player cannot pitch more than 12 innings in a 24-hour period.

PCL flag race tightens as Mounties even series

By The Associated Press

The Pacific Coast Baseball League pennant race tightened up again Thursday night as the third-place Vancouver Mounties evened their four-game series with first-place Sacramento.

Mounties beat the Solons 4-3 in the final meeting of the four-game set while San Diego's Padres tapped the second-place Beavers 6-1.

Those were the only two games played in the league. Spokane used the night off to hang a 3-2 exhibition defeat on their parent Los Angeles Dodgers. Phoenix beat Eugene of the Northwest League 4-1 in another exhibition game.

The results of the two league games left Portland a game and a half behind the Solons and only one percentage point ahead of the Mounties. Salt Lake City holds down fourth place, two games out, Phoenix is three games behind, San Diego 3½ and Spokane 5½. Seattle's last-place Rainiers are 11 games out.

The Mounties splurged for three runs in the third inning, with two of them coming on Wayne Causey's first home run of the year. The winning run scored in the sixth on singles by Causey and Joe Frazier and a sacrifice.

Winning pitcher Dick Stigman, who limited Portland to seven hits, helped his own cause with a two-run triple in the second ining. Stigman struck out eight Portland batters and walked only one in beating Art Houtteman. Don Dillard poled out a solo homer for the Padres in the seventh inning.
