Lions smash Roughriders 45-6

B.C. still in race for playoff berth

By GERRY McNEIL

The British Columbia Lions smashed past Saskatchewan Roughriders Monday night to assure themselves of a final chance to make the playoffs.

Lions whipped the pathetic Riders, who mustered an offence of only 46 yards, 45-6 to move into a tie for third place with Calgary Stampeders.

Lions and Stamps, both with 6 points, meet next Saturday in their final game of a 16-game schedule to decide who will face Edmonton Eskimos in the Western Interprovincial Football Union semi-finals.

Eskimos won second place Monday night with a 21-20 victory over Winnipeg Blue Bombers in Edmonton.

Regardless of whether Calgary or B.C. win their next game, Esks would get the playoff spot because of a better for-and-against points average.

Bombers, who clinched first place last week, suffered a more shattering loss when star quarterback Jim Van Pelt left the field in the second half with a shoulder separation. Coach Bud Grant said the injury will put Van Pelt, hero of the 1958 Grey Cup game which Bombers won, out for the season.

"That's just about as bad a break as you can get," said the downhearted Grant after the game in Edmonton.

Veteran Edmonton halfback Rollie Miles threw a jarring tackle into Van Pelt to cause the injury.

Saskatchewan, with two games left, lost quarterback Don Allard for the season when he aggravated a hip injury suffered last week against Winnipeg.

Lions scored 35 points in the last quarter after a game that had been surprising tight, considering the statistics. The Riders completed no passes, made 46 yards rushing and had only three first downs.

A crowd of 7,500 saw Saskatchewan lose its 13th game in 14 starts. Lions' halfback Willie Fleming scored three touchdowns and ends Jerry Janes and Bruce Claridge and back Ed Vereb got the others. Vic Kristopaitis converted all six and booted a 40-yard field goal.

Saskatchewan halfback Jack Hill took a Lions fumble 40 yards for a touchdown—the home team's only score.

Lions made 558 yards, 332 passing, and had 22 first downs.

A crowd of about 15,000 watched Eskimos and Bombers fight a balanced game climaxed in the last 90 seconds by a converted Edmonton touchdown.

End Tommy-Joe Coffey booted the winning point after Jim Letcavits had taken a 20-yard pass from quarterback Jackie Parker for a touchdown. Parker threw another touchdown pass to half Joe-Bob Smith from seven yards out and fullback Johnny Bright scored Esks' other touchdown on a three-yard plunge.

Half Carver Shannon took two passes from Van Pelt for touchdowns, one on a 90-yard pass-and-run play in the third quarter to tie the game 14-14. A touchdown by fullback Gerry James put Bombers ahead 20-14.

Winnipeg's other points came on a convert by Van Pelt and a single by Charlie Shepard.

Nellie Fox top man on all-star team

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ

NEW YORK (AP)—Nellie Fox, second baseman of the American League pennant-winning Chicago White Sox, received the most votes for the 1959 Associated Press major league all-star team named today.

Fox was selected on 165 of the 173 ballots cast by members of the Baseball Writers Association of America participating in the annual poll. Two White Sox teammates, catcher Sherm Lollar and righthanded pitcher Early Wynn, aso were voted on the team.

Fox was one of four holdovers from last season's all-star squad. The other repeaters were shortstop Ernie Banks of Chicago Cubs and outfielders Hank Aaron of Milwaukee Braves and Willie Mays of San Francisco Giants.

Oddly enough, no member of the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers was chosen to either the first or second teams.

The remainder of the team included first baseman Orlando Cepeda of San Francisco, third baseman Eddie Mathews of Milwaukee, outfielder Al Kaline of Detroit Tigers and lefthanded pitcher Johnny Antonelli of San Francisco.

Aaron was the second highest vote-getter with 163 followed by Wynn with 125. Then came Mathews with 119, Mays 118, Lollar 112, Banks 88, Antonelli 86 and Cepeda and Kaline 72 each.

The balloting for shortstop produced the closest race. Banks drew three more votes than Luis Aparicio of the White Sox, who polled 85.

Seven players batted over .300, headed by Aaron, who led the National League with .355. Aaron also was tops in slugging percentage with a .636 average while Kaline was high in the American League with .530. Mathews was the National League's home run leader with 46 and Banks drove in the most runs, 143.

Wynn, the American League's only 20-game winner, posted a 22-10 record for a .688 percentage. Antonelli won 19 and lost 10 for a .655 mark. Each pitcher wound up with identical earned run averages of 3.13.

Missing from last year's first team were first baseman Stan Musial, third baseman Frank Thomas, outfielder Mickey Mantle, catcher Del Crandall, lefthanded pitcher Warren Spahn and righthander pitcher Bob Turley.

Rookie winger proves valuable to Warriors

By The Canadian Press

As valuable players go, Winnipeg Warriors appear to have found one of the best.

With little over two weeks of the Western Hockey League season gone, rookie left-winger Norm Waslowski is already shaping up as a Warrior to watch.

Waslowski has scored at least one goal in each of Winnipeg's six games. He pumped in his latest Monday night as Warriors dropped a 4-3 loss to the Stampeders before 2,519 fans in Calgary. He now has scored six of Winnipeg's 16 goals this season.

Waslowski's record puts him in a third-place tie in the league scoring race with Seattle Totems Cuyle Fielder and Calgary's Jack McLeod at eight points each.

But despite Waslowski's efforts, Winnipeg still is deep in sixth place.

Calgary hurdled three teams to take second place on Monday's win. Stampeders are four points behind the driving Vancouver Canucks, who have 10, and one ahead of Edmonton Flyers, Seattle and Victoria who have five apiece. Winnipeg has three points from five starts and Spokane is one point behind in the cellar.

Winnipeg's other scorers were Ted Green and Gord Redahl. Calgary's goals were divided between McLeod, Lou Jankowski, Jim Moro and Sid Finney.

Finney's score pulled him atop of the scoring race level with Edmonton's brilliant Murray Oliver. Both have five goals and five assists although Oliver has played only four games compared to Finney's seven.

In tonight's games, Vancouver takes the ice against the visiting Totems and Edmonton visits the hapless Comets.
