Children pack Centre for Christmas party

The Civic Centre was a scene of great excitement and gaiety Sunday afternoon when the Women's auxiliary of the International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers Union Local 708 entertained more than 600 children at the annual Christmas Tree party.

Guest performer Michael Colussi welcomed the little guests, playing favorite Christmas carols and songs on the accordion.

Popular emcee Mrs. Michael Karasosky led the group in a community sing-song, accompanied by Mrs. T. A. Paavola at the piano.

P. L. Ratchford showed a selection of enjoyable children's films.

A delightful performance was given by the Civic Centre Rhythm Band of pre-schoolers, under the direction of Centre instructor Mrs. Warne Peterson.

Particularly pleasing was a duet by five-year-olds Cindy Paavola and Susan Lees, who sang "Away in the Manger."

Santa Claus in the form of C. D. Bruce, arrived to the playing and singing of "Here Comes Santa Claus" by the Rhythm Band.

Assisting Santa with the distribution of gifts were Mrs. Stanley Peterson, Mrs. William Rothwell, Mrs. B. J. Fortune, Mrs. Arthur Sweet and Mrs. Gordon Cameron.

Handing out packages of nuts, candies and oranges to the children as they left the party were Mrs. Robert Simonds, Miss Phyllis Simunds and Mrs. Robert Player.

Others assisting to provide a huge success were Ron Rothwell, Mrs. Gordon Stenset, Mrs. Walter Jessup, B. J. Fortune, T. A. Paavola and Murray Johnston.

General conveners were Mrs. Player and Mrs. Fortune.

GREET THE GUESTS with hot seafood hors d'oeuvres. Shown above in clockwise direction are tiny salmon doughnuts, lobster whirligigs, tuna hobo rolls and crab toasties. The array makes delectable open house party fare.
