PLAYER IS ARRESTED FOR HITTING NEWSY

Lalonde Has Ten Stitches Put in His Head After Game at Toronto

Montreal, Dec. 30—As an aftermath of the Wanderer-Canadien exhibition hockey game at Toronto on Saturday night some interesting developments are expected. President Emmett Quinn, of the N.H.A. has suspended Sprague Cleghorn indefinitely for his assault on Lalonde, pending the official report of the referee. He stated that nothing would save Cleghorn for another fine. President Quinn is determined to stamp out such conduct and has started in with the first case on the calendar.

In speaking of it, he said he thought that Lalonde was to blame in going after "Odie" Cleghorn, for which he was fined $25 and ruled off, but in his opinion there was no excuse for Sprague Sleghorn attacking Lalonde as he did. There were numerous fines handed out during the game, Sprague Cleghorn being fined $25 for his foul against Lalonde. Lalonde was fined $25 for his foul against Odie Cleghorn as well as a minor fine of $5, while Ornie Russell also was fined $5.

President Quinn stated that when Cleghorn struck Lalonde that he cut him so badly that Dr. Wright had to put ten stitches in the wound. The trouble happened in the third period when the score was 3 all. Lalonde cross checked Odie Cleghorn over the face into the boards and his brother, Sprague Cleghorn, rushed up and hit Lalonde over the eye with his stick, inflicting a wound that required ten stitches. Both were ruled off for the balance of the game and each was fined $25.

The Wanderers won the game by a score of 4 to 3, Art Ross scoring the winning tally.

Be Suspicious

BE suspicious of that of which nobody is proud. Be suspicious of the mere low-price argument offered in favor of an article with no reputation, no backer, no guarantor.

Better buy the thing you know and can trust, than an article unbranded and unvouched for.

The branded shoe, made by a maker with a reputation, is a safer shoe to buy than the one made in an unknown factory by an unknown maker.

The underwear made by a firm whose name is as familiar to you as your own, is worth more to you than underwear nameless or labelled by a maker of whom you have never heard.

Tea sealed in a packet bearing the name of a reputable firm is to be preferred to tea of which the packer is not sufficiently proud to advertise its quality.

That in which much money has been invested to make or keep it good is worth more than that on which nothing or but little has been spent.

Peace of mind is worth something, just as quality is. Buy peace of mind.

When you buy anything worth while buying, buy that of which you know—from advertisements, or from other dependable acquaintance. Buy the article with the "money back" guarantee—with the pledge of a known name behind it.

Put your faith in the advertisements appearing in good newspapers. Beware of the article that cannot stand the spot-light of publicity. The commodity an advertiser backs with his own money is something worth your buying.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.
