FRED VANCE
. . . Scouts' V.C.

Cornwell Badge for Kemano boy

A Kemano Boy Scout, severely burned while on a winter outing, has been awarded the Cornwell Scout Badge, Scouting's Victoria Cross.

The award, to Patrol Leader Fred Vance of Kemano, highlights a list of honors to nine British Columbia Scouts, leaders and officials.

It was announced in Ottawa by Governor General Vincent Massey in his capacity as Chief Scout for Canada marking the birthdate Sunday of Lord Robert Baden-Powell of Gilwell, founder of The Boy Scout Movement.

The Cornwell Badge for 13-year-old Vance is one of two awarded in Canada on this list. It is the first in B.C. since 1951.

The Cornwell Badge is for pre-eminently high character and devotion to duty, together with great courage, endurance or gallantry by a boy member.

Although suffering second and third degree burns on his face, hands and arms, Vance showed remarkable fortitude and cheerfulness throughout the painful first aid treatment, rescue and long hospital convalescence.

On November 15, 1958, Patrol Leader Vance took his patrol and joined by another Patrol in his Troop, snowshoed eight miles up Horetzky Creek to a cabin 3,000 feet above Kemano.

The ten boys, including Queen's Scouts Mike Fletcher and Jack Smith, were settling for the night when they had to adjust a gas lamp. It exploded turning Vance into a human torch and burning Ian Drolet.

Fast action by the Scouts, who wrapped blankets around the two, smothered the flames. Fletcher and Smith applied first aid but recognized second and third degree burns on Vance.

Paulette Turcotte of OKY tallied 272 for women's high single in B league while Elsie Paulson took high triple with 515.

Both team honors were won by Hotshots with totals of 1162 and 2806.

A League—Bird Dogs 2, Mighty Mites 2; Maniacs 3, Pinheads 1; Electrons 3, Digesters 1.

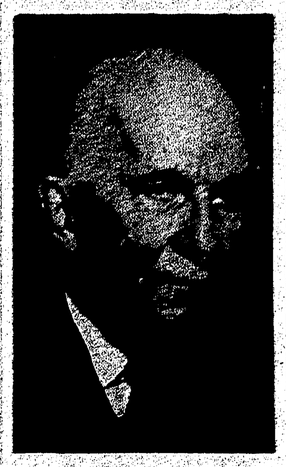
Arrest follows self-expression of marksman

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Every time James Daniels, 42, approached the intersection of North Third and Vine Streets here, the "walk-wait" pedestrian lights at the intersection would turn to "wait," he told police.

This, he said, irritated him.

Tuesday afternoon when the light turned to "wait," Daniels whipped out a .22-calibre revolver and shot out the light. He then sauntered into a nearby cafe where he was arrested.

Officers charged him with destruction of property, carrying a concealed weapon and discharging firearms in the city.



GOVERNOR - GENERAL — Vincent Massey, 71, is now in his last year of a record seven years as Canada's first native-born Governor-General. Mr. Massey will likely retire in September at the age of 72 and plunge into new activity, writing a book of reminiscences and observations of his career; the years as a Canadian minister to Washington in the 1920s; the hectic days as High Commissioner to London before and during the Second World War; and as Governor-General to Canada. —CP photo.

Women back brothels

VANCOUVER (CP)—The League of Women Voters here resolved Friday night that a "red light" district should be set up in the city, "if all other methods to stop call-girl rackets prove unsuccessful."

However, the 20 women attending a league meeting also passed a resolution praising Vancouver police for their efforts to combat the racket.

Baby for Janet

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It's a baby girl for actress Janet Blair and producer Nick Mayo. The baby weighed in Sunday at eight pounds. She is the couple's first child. Miss Blair is 32, May 39.

Pastrano, Joe Erskine meet in "must" match

LONDON (AP)—Two heavyweights at the crossroads, Willie Pastrano of the United States and Britain's Joe Erskine, meet tonight in a 10-round bout at Wembley Stadium. It's close to a "must" match for both.

Pastrano, once among the leading challengers to heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, has slipped in the last year to a point where he's down to sixth on the list.

Erskine, a year ago the top British hope for the world title, has lost one opportunity after another because of a tendency toward cut eyes. He is no longer rated.

It will be Erskine's first major test since he took five months off and underwent an operation to strengthen the tissues above his eyes. In a warmup a few weeks ago, the 25-year-old Welshman took several hard blows around the eyes and wasn't cut.

The bout is important to Pastrano not only because of his dwindling ranking but also because he is in line for a fight with Cuba's Nino Valdes in April.

It will be Pastrano's first fight since he lost to Britain's Brian London on a technical knockout here five months ago.

Als to sign quarterback

MONTREAL (CP)—Montreal Alouettes today announced receipt of a signed tryout contract from Wesley Gledon, 21-year-old quarterback and defensive half from Trinity University, San Antonio, Texas. Gledon had previously announced he would sign.

Gledon, who is six feet tall and weighs 185, made little all-American rating in 1958. He is ranked a triple-threat player.
