Gyro juniors edge seniors 9-7

Score six runs in second inning

A six-run rally in the second inning gave Gyros of the Pony League a 9-7 victory over the Gyro Service Club last night at Roosevelt Park.

The exhibition game was held to help assist the Pony League financially.

It was announced at the game that the large crowd contributed a total of $100 — more than the total amount contributed in 36 league games during the season.

Wayne Haldane pitched the entire game for the juniors and did a fine job. He allowed seven hits, walked only one and struck out 13.

Vern Ciccone started for the seniors but was pulled in the fourth after he had been charged with seven runs. "Screwball" was replaced by Jack Lindsay, "the home run king" who worked until the seventh and allowed but one run.

In the top of the seventh, the senior coach and "old master himself" Bill Lamble took to the mound.

He allowed but one hit but a run scored when catcher Dido Gurvich missed a pitched ball.

Lambie also hit a run-scoring single in the bottom of the seventh but had a courtesy runner brought in for him.

The three senior pitchers gave up a total of seven hits, issued six free passes and struck out eight.

Skip Cronk and Dave Pitre led the juniors at the plate each getting two hits in four trips. Bobby Rudderham paced the seniors with two for three.

The juniors committed eight errors while the seniors made six bungles.

Gurvich was the biggest crowd-pleaser of the game with his antics behind the plate.

Every time a ball was hit foul behind the plate he'd ask umpire Benny Windle for a new one. Then he'd ask Windle to retrieve the old ball so as to not delay the game.

He questioned almost every call of Windle's if it wasn't a strike and generally clowned it up.

As a base runner he started at second baseman Sven Rasmussen, instead of watching the play, and obstructed Sven's view of the plate much to the crowd's approval.

Rudderham drew much applause when he fell on his posterior while attempting to tag a runner stealing second base.

Ciccone threw a curve ball at third baseman Lindsay in the second inning to check a runner. But the ball curved about 10 feet wide of the base and the runner scored.

George Cook and Al Mcdonell both achieved prominence as they each struck out twice. Joe McKay joined the ranks of those great strike-out artists as he too struck out twice. Not to be outdone, Bill Stone came through with a strike-out in his only appearance at the plate.

The crowd obviously enjoyed the game and with Len Harrington doing a fine job of the announcing, the contest was described as a complete success.

Most of the people said that more games of this type should be played.

After the game Lambie said that he was fit "to go another five innings."

Mintenko hurls one-hitter for grocers

Gerry Mintenko pitched a one-hitter as Shop Easy clobbered Irish Fusiliers 25-1 in the first game of their best-of-three Little League semi-finals last night at Algoma Park.

Mintenko walked three and struck out 15 batters to gain the win. He faced only 22 batters in six innings—four more than the minimum.

Donald Hansen was the loser for Fusiliers.

Hansen scored Fusiliers' only run in the second inning after walking.

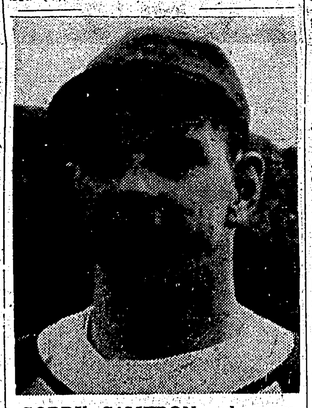
Mintenko had a no-hitter going for him until the sixth and final inning when he gave up a single to shortstop Peterson.

Jofre top boxer

NEW YORK (AP) — Eder Jofre, undefeated world bantamweight champion from Brazil was named fighter of the month by Ring Magazine today for his knockout victory over Japan's Sadao Yaoita.

Jofre flattened the Orient flyweight champion in the 10th round of a non-title bout in Brazil.

There were no changes in the heavyweight rankings for Floyd Patterson's world crown.



GORDY CAMERON, player with Esquires, will see action in the annual baseball tournament at Roosevelt Park Saturday and Sunday. Cameron, who can play almost any position, will be playing for the local all-stars in the seven-team tourney.

Champion Rough Riders trip Lions with last-quarter touchdown

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Calgary Stampeders and Ottawa Rough Riders drove back after giving up early leads to score close exhibition football victories Tuesday night.

In Vancouver, the Grey Cup champion Riders yielded the first converted touchdown, then matched blows with British Columbia Lions until Gerry Nesbitt's last - quarter touchdown gave the easterners a 22-14 triumph.

Saskatchewan Roughriders also scored first before a "Canada Day" crowd of 10,000 in Spokane, Wash., but the Stampeders, with two quarterbacks going to the air, retaliated for a 14-7 win.

Nesbitt picked up a fumbled ball on the Lions' 10-yard line early in the fourth quarter and gave the Rough Riders an insurmountable lead before 17,988 fans. Three Ottawa tacklers had jarred the ball loose from B.C. quarterback Jim Walden.

RIDERS TAKE LEAD

The Lions and Riders were tied 7-7 at the end of the first quarter, Riders took a 14-7 lead at the half and a lost-second single by Dick Demarais gave the eastern conference team a 15-14 margin entering the final 15 minutes of play.

Willie Fleming raced 69 yards around left end for B.C.'s first touchdown in the first quarter and Walden, who went the distance as Lions' quarterback, hit end Dick Johnson midway through the third for the second B.C. score. George Grant converted both.

Quarterback Ron Lancaster connected with end Bob Johnson on a 30-yard pass with 18 seconds left in the opening quarter and the rookie import went over for Ottawa's first touchdown.

Canadian Russ Jackson, sharing quarterback duties with Lancaster, moved Riders ahead 14-7 early in the second, completing a 70-yard march by rolling to the left and scoring from Lions' six-yard line.

GAME TIED

Saskatchewan grabbed the lead with an unconverted touchdown in the first quarter and the game was deadlocked 7-7 at halftime. The Stamps moved ahead 14-7 in the third quarter.

Passing led to Saskatchewan's only touchdown when quarterback Bob Ptacek fired 19 yards to Jack Gotta, 11 to Don McKeta and 26 to Ray Purdin on the five-yard line in the first quarter. Purdin took a handoff and scotted around right end to score and give the Roughriders a 6-0 lead. Fullback Fred Burkett kicked a single for Saskatchewan's other point.

Halfback Ray Matthews and Lowell Coleman scored Calgary's touchdowns. George Hansen converted both.

GO TO AIR

Quarterbacks Joe Kapp and Gene Cichowski provided the fans with some fine passing. Kapp hit Matthews in the second quarter, and the Calgary halfback wheeled around end from the five-yard line to score the first Stampeder touchdown, capping a 69-yard march.

In the third quarter, Cichowski hit Ernie Warlick for 10 yards and then Coleman for 16 yards in the end zone.

The yardstick story indicated Ottawa deserved to win the dull Vancouver contest. Riders had 15 first downs on 222 yards rushing and 90 passing as Lancaster and Jackson completed five of 11 pass attempts. The Lions had 14 first downs on 171 yards rushing and 167 passing, with Walden completing 15 of 31 passes.

Ottawa's Ron Stewart, named Canada's outstanding football player last year, piled up 112 yards on 11 carries.

Orphans edge Chieftains

Orphans edged Chieftains 9-4 last night at Algoma Park to take a 2-1 lead in the best-of-seven Senior Men's Softball Championships.

Jack Mitchell went the distance for the win. He allowed seven hits.

Dick Campbell started for Chieftains but was replaced by Al Campbell in the fourth. Together the two hurlers held Orphans to only four hits but seven walks and five errors didn't help.

Al Campbell got a home run with nobody on in the sixth inning.

Orphans started the game scoring two runs and never looked back. They added three in the fourth, one in the fifth and another three in the sixth to sew it up.
